!WHAT A CONVENTION!

State Convention was the weekend of May 12th 2017. It was celebration of Wisconsin going RED for the last presidential cycle and preparing for the future. We contributed over 70 pound of nonperishable food items to the convention food drive effort.

Governor Walker told us he was ready for four more years and the crowd of delegates cheered and gave a standing ovation!

Our County Party was selected as one of the Top 5 Counties in the state. THAT'S HUGE in my book. Every county was energized across the state for the presidential and senate races and we were identified as one of the Top 5. Congratulations to Jackson County as the Top County for 2016.

We had 39 people earn Campbell Awards. The Executive Committee determined that a County Party Member had to have volunteered at least 50 hours directly to the RPWC, not a campaign or through another organization directly in support of the RPWC. This year's Campbell Award winners are: Sandi Goebel, Anna Schwarz, Kathy Loveless, Kristy Secord, Beth Lock, Seth Schmidt, John Reiff, Tracy Reiff, Joe Rezek, Tom Schinke, Sue Schinke, Trudy Schulz, Chris Lindloff, Chris Goebel, Doc Loftus, Lori

WALCO YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT

One of our RPWC members has been instrumental in starting a WALCO Youth in Government Program. It is comprised of high school students who serve in an advisory capacity on City Council's, and Town and Village Boards.

There is a selection process and currently the City of Elkhorn and the Village of East Troy are participating in the program.

It sounds like a fantastic program and if you would like more information or want to help get active with the program please contact RPWC Member Abi Lange (262) 719-0963 or private message her on FaceBook.
