

Peerie Hoose – near Parrog; sleeps 5

Peerie Hoose (on the right with the brown door) is a centrally-heated, simply-furnished stone cottage with two bedrooms, and is ideal for a family with up to three children. The cottage is on the Pembrokeshire Coastal path about 100 metres from the sea at Parrog and 150 metres from the Boat Club.

The front door of Peerie Hoose opens to a hall and stairway. There is a door to the sitting room, furnished with sofas and a TV. There is a woodburning stove and there is also central heating system throughout the cottage.

The kitchen/dining room has a gas cooker, microwave oven/grill, table, chairs, a highchair and sink. Adjoining the kitchen, a large covered area contains a fridge/freezer, dishwasher, washing machine and space for drying clothes. Doors lead to the bathroom with bath, shower and washbasin. There is a separate lavatory.

Upstairs are two bedrooms. The front bedroom contains two single beds plus a third single that pulls out – making either three singles or one double and one single. The back bedroom – which has views of Carningli – has a double bed. A cot is available.

At the rear of the cottage is a large, secluded garden with plenty of grass, a generous picnic table and garden furniture.

Peerie Hoose has broadband.

Price
