Congratulations LSUMC!

We are the lucky recipients of a $500 New Faith Community Grant presented to us from the Central Texas Conference (CTC). CTC offered 4 $500 New Faith Community Grants for helping churches create new faith communities during the remainder of the 2017 year. The grants are to help reach outside of the walls of the church into the community.

Our application included the ministries we are working on that reach outside of our walls: The Food Forum, the School Bus Brigade, and our newest program-Emergency Needs Vouchers. These ministries will help us bond with the local community and spread God's word!

BIBLICAL SUPERHEROES ON JULY 23RD WAS DA BOMB!

Were you here Sunday evening on July 23rd? We had a SUPER time! Merle Hughes once again provided a Class A program for 29 kids, with dancing and music, lots of food, prizes galore, EVERY SUPPLY ON THEIR CLASS LIST for back to school, and of course a wonderful biblical message from five different heroes from the bible.

First was Joshua, played by Glenn Walser. He told about his need to be obedient and do God's bidding to take the city of Jericho. Next was Queen Esther, played by Betsy Metcalf. The Queen told her story of how she bravely saved her people from the evil Haman. Lee Largent played Joseph, Jacob's son with the coat of many colors. Joseph shared his story of patience and perseverance while dealing with the treachery of his brothers and also interpreting his famous dreams. Cynthia Gage portrayed Deborah, the mighty warrior. She told all about her exploits as a judge and prophetess, and how she was assisted in the overthrow of Canaan. The final bible hero was David, played by Hank Ander. David even had his slingshot which he used to defeat the large Goliath. He told the group that the bigger they are, the harder they fall!

All of the families enjoyed lasagna, salad, green beans, bread and a plethora of cookies. Lots of smiles, lots of happy faces!
