Join us as Lent comes to an end and Holy Week begins. Our children's Easter celebration will be held April 13th with egg hunt & lunch organized by Merle Hughes. There will be lots of fun, goodies and of course the story of the resurrection. Palm Sunday follows with a triumphant entry to Jerusalem with a delicious Potluck Brunch. We'll have ham and turkey here, bring your best brunch dish to go along.

We will gather together for our Maundy Thursday service, starting at 6 pm. Janet Martin has planned a musical Good Friday service with a special adaptation of the Easter cantata "The Cross Changes Everything" created by Jeff Bumgardner and Joel Lindsey and arranged by J. Daniel Smith.

Narrated from Peter's perspective, the St. Elmo Sound singers take us on a journey from Peter's call to leave his fishing nets behind, the triumphal entry, and the grueling walk down the Via Dolorosa, to the crucifixion. St. Elmo Sound singers: Joanna Fritz, Bob Gage, Cathy Kjellsen, Janet Martin & Betsy Metcalf. Our narrator is Glenn Walser, Sound Technician is Ron Kjellsen.

The glory of Easter and the resurrection comes on April 21st with our beautiful worship service.

Fifth Sunday SING

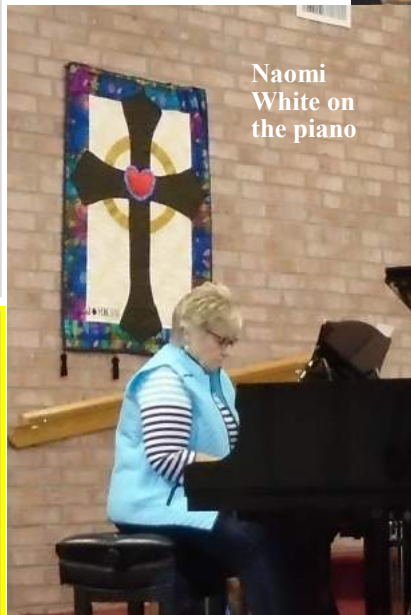

DID YOU MISS IT?

March 31st was another great sing with 52 people present and lots of toe-tappin' and singing going on! Featured was the duo Ragweed, composed of Jeff Harrison on vocals and guitar and Dan Woods on the harmonica. They were joined by local artists Naomi White on the piano, David Grosshans on the bongos, Tex Schutz on the dobro with Mary Schutz as our conductress and singer. We even coaxed Bob Gage up to the stage for a song! The music was good old time gospel songs. We also had plenty of great goodies and fellowship following the concert. AND we filled our food bin for the Food Pantry! Our next Fifth Sunday Sing will be June 30th. Why don't you make plans to join us?
