The Council recently decided that we should start putting the financial information into the Hear Ye and Newsletter, to give you an idea of how our church is doing—financially. You will start seeing a small box in the Hear Ye each Sunday notating our income and expense, along with the weekly giving. This information is taking a snapshot in time—please remember that expenses are not the same each month, and that income ebbs and flows. If you have any questions about this information, please ask Diane Jones, our Treasurer, or David Rist, our Finance Committee Chair.

How Are We Doing?

JOYS:

We are thankful for the beautiful music provided by the Ladies Ensemble and Cynthia & Bob Gage. We are truly blessed with talented individuals in our church. Thank you, God!

Sue Ander said that as the grandmother of a two-year old she knew what it was like to take care of one. So she empathized with Donna and Randie Fenton who have just returned from taking care of their grandchildren, two year old, Ethan, and a brand new baby girl, Chloe. There was a pretty pink carnation on the altar rail in honor of Chloe.

Bea Kelley told us that Elton Holt, her cousin, had been in a coma and was on life support. He came out of his coma and was taken off of life support and now is out of all his difficulties. Praise the Lord!

Carole Stubblefield was joyful because she had been to Waco where one of her sisters lives. Her other sister from Colorado was there too and the three sisters had a wonderful visit.

Thomas Q. said what a wonderful support it is to people who are experiencing problems to know the church is praying for them!

CONCERNS:

Thomas Q. and Ruth asked us to pray for a waitress at Sam's who is a friend of a waitress there that they know. She has advanced breast cancer.

Continued prayers are needed for Roxie Steinberg who is seriously ill and in bad shape.

Joel Robbins, son of Thomas Q. and Ruth, has pulmonary issues that are affecting his health and his ministry. Please pray for him.

Janet Martin requests prayer for Roy Burrell who is suffering from congestive heart failure.

Tom Jones told us about Elizabeth West Hart whose husband, Jerry, recently died. She needs our prayers.

Richard Soltis, father of Cassi Yarbrough, has a spot on his lung and will undergo a biopsy to confirm a cancer diagnosis.

Our sincere sympathies go to Kay and Bob Cornish on the death of their daughter Sherri. Please pray for them and for all their family as they adjust to life without Sherri.

Carole Stubblefield asks us to pray for Shawn, a young man who has an infection in his pancreas. He is very ill.

Sandi Davis reports that her daughter's surgery went very well.

As our country gears up for elections to take place in 2020, our prayer is that you, Lord, would guide this country and help us to choose wise and Godly leaders to lead us in this turbulent world!
