

The Statue of Our Lady of Walsingham

Our Lady of Walsingham emphasizes the Motherhood of Mary. Her perfect discipleship is represented by the manner in which she presents her Son to the world.

PRIORY SEAL

The statue pictured above is based upon the seal of the medieval Priory of Walsingham dated 1275, an image of which is reproduced at right.

History of Our Lady of Walsingham

The Shrine of Our Lady in Walsingham, England was established in 1061 when, according to the text of the Pynson Ballad (c 1485), Richeldis de Faverches prayed that she might undertake some special work in honor of Our Lady. In answer to her prayer, the Virgin Mary led Richeldis on a spiritual journey to Nazareth, showed her the house where the Annunciation occurred, and asked her to build a replica in Walsingham. The replica would serve as a perpetual memorial of the Annunciation. Our Lady promised, “Whoever seeks my help there will not go away empty-handed.”

The simple wooden house, the Holy House, was built and became the focus of special devotion to Our Lady. One of the great shrines of Medieval Christendom, the site was visited by pilgrims and royalty. In 1153, the Augustinian Canons founded a priory to care for pilgrims, adding a priory church in the fifteenth century. In 1340, the Slipper Chapel was built at Houghton Saint Giles, a mile outside of Walsingham. This was the final station chapel on the way to the Holy House. Here pilgrims would remove their shoes to walk the final holy mile to the shrine barefoot. The Holy House was destroyed in 1538 when England’s religious houses were dissolved by order of Henry VIII. The statue of Our Lady was taken to London and was burned. Nothing remains today of the original shrine.

A revival of the Shrine began in 1896 when the Slipper Chapel was restored by Charlotte Pearson Boyd for Roman Catholic use. In 1922, the Anglican Vicar at Walsingham began the restoration of the shrine beside the ancient well and remaining arch of the priory. This is where archaeologists place the site of the Holy House. Construction was completed in 1938. In the 1970’s, the Russian Orthodox Church consecrated the Church of Saint Seraphim in Walsingham.

Today, pilgrims of all faiths stop in the Catholic Slipper Chapel before walking the mile to the Holy House at the Anglican shrine. In the words of Saint John Paul II, “the House at Nazareth is where the Angel Gabriel appeared to Mary, where she awaited the birth of her Son and where He grew to manhood. The Holy House is the universal home of all the adopted children of God.”

After a visit to Walsingham, England, Father Thomas Walsh, Saint Bede’s founding pastor, commissioned a statue of Our Lady of Walsingham from Lilian Dagless who designed and made most of the furnishings for the Slipper Chapel. In 1942, Our Lady of Walsingham in Williamsburg, Virginia became a diocesan shrine. Finally, in 2016, the shrine was officially recognized by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops as a national shrine. Records indicate that this is the first national shrine in the Diocese of Richmond.

Rosary of Our Lady of Walsingham

Begin with Intercessory Prayer

O my dearest Mother Mary, Our Lady of Walsingham, behold me, your child, in prayer at your feet. Accept this Holy Rosary, as a proof of my tender love for you, for the intentions of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, in atonement for the offenses committed against your loving Heart, and for this special favor which I earnestly request (mention your prayer petition).

I beg you to present my petition to your Divine Son. If you will pray for me, I cannot be refused. I know, dearest Mother, that you want me to seek God’s Holy Will concerning my request. If what I ask for should not be granted, pray that I may receive that which will be of greater benefit to my soul. Dear Mother, Our Lady of Walsingham, I offer you this spiritual “Bouquet of Roses” because I love you. I put all my confidence in you since your prayers before God are most powerful. For the greater glory of God and for the sake of Jesus, Your loving Son, hear and grant my prayer. Amen.

Follow with the Ancient Walsingham Prayer

O alone of all women, Mother and Virgin, Mother most happy, Virgin most pure, now we, sinful as we are, come to see thee who are all pure, we salute thee, we honour thee as how we may with our humble offerings; may thy Son grant us, that imitating thy most holy manners, we also, by the grace of the Holy Ghost may deserve spiritually to conceive the Lord Jesus in our inmost soul, and once conceived never to lose Him. Amen.

Concluding Prayer

O God, Whose only-begotten Son, by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech You, that, meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Walsingham, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
