

The Center for Animal Health & Welfare

Finding Forever Homes for Homeless Animals

Kennel Technician

- Clean the animals' cages, kennels and runs.
- Feeding the animals, provide them with fresh water and clean their bowls daily.
- Assist in laundry and washing dishes and other items used in feeding and daily care.
- Animal enrichment
- Rotate food to assure that supplies are kept as fresh as possible.
- Unload and store items that are delivered or donated to the shelter in an orderly fashion.
- Assist visitors to the shelter who are interested in adopting or just have questions.
- Administer prescribed oral medications to the animals according to the direction of the Animal Care Manager,
- Alert and liaise with other staff techs and Animal Care Manager to inform them of any changes, conditions, causes of concern in regard to the animals or physical plant.

Preferred Qualifications

- Dedication and love of animals and deep commitment to care for them.
- Willingness to learn and follow directions.
- Good customer service skills in order to interact with public.
- Diligence in completing assigned task in an efficient and thorough manner.
- Prior experience caring for pets, farm animals or shelter animals.
- Successful completion of training covering the types and varieties of medications prescribed for animals and the methods used to administer prescribed medications.
- Reliable Transportation
- Must be dependable

Job Type: Part-time

Salary: $8.00 /hour

Job Location: Easton, PA 18042

Required license or certification: Driver's License Required

The Center for Animal Health & Welfare

Finding Forever Homes for Homeless Animals