

FAQ

What is CCJWSA?

CCJWSA stands for the California Criminal Justice Warrant Services Association. CCJWSA was founded in 1959 and is composed of law enforcement and criminal justice agencies.

What does CCJWSA do?

For almost 60 years, the mission of CCJWSA has been to enhance, by active effort and support, the cooperation among all city, county, state and federal criminal justice and law enforcement agencies in the matter of issuance, processing and service of warrants and TO provide a common medium of exchange of information by conducting training workshops.

How does my agency become a member of CCJWSA?

Download the application that is on our website (www.ccjwsa.org) and mail it with a check or money order to:

CCJWSA
PO Box 8237
Woodland, CA 95776

Or you may fax your order to: (530) 666-2661

Or you may email your form to: paula.vaughn@yolocounty.org

Why information is listed in the CCJWSA directories?

The CCJWSA directory is compiled, updated and published each year and is a valuable tool in the continual dissemination of information regarding issuance and service of warrants. It has law enforcement agency names, addresses, phone numbers, CLETS mnemonics, as well as the type of warrants served and the booking facility. The Directory also includes District Attorneys, Department of Motor Vehicles, California State Court Codes, California Department of Correction Facilities, State Prisons, and Parole in addition to a host of other information. It has a variety of California and Federal Agencies plus Out of State agencies and Tables. It is a valuable tool that every law enforcement agency can benefit from.

What if I need to make corrections to my agency's information that is listed in the directory?

Download and fill out our "make changes form" and email to any board member or mail to:

CCJWSA
PO Box 8237
Woodland, CA 95776

How do I get more directories?

Download the "directory purchase form". Directories are $15.00 each for member agencies and $40.00 each for non-member agencies. Send the completed form along with a check or money order to: CCJWSA

PO Box 8237
Woodland, CA 95776

How can I become more involved with CCJWSA?

Contact any board member via phone or email for more information.

When is the annual conference?

The training workshops are held in the spring. Please continue to check our website for updates.

What type of training does CCJWSA provide?

CCJWSA provides a forum for essential networking between those attending. The participants then can disseminate the information to their individual agencies. The workshops presented by the association are approved by Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST). Some topics that are covered include Wanted Persons Systems (WPS), legal updates regarding warrant service, risk management, John Doe Warrants, Extradition, Skip tracing, Social Networking Sites and many other topics.

What do I get for my $75.00 annual membership?

Included with your $75.00 membership are two directories. You will also receive discounts on additional directories ($15.00 vs. $40.00) as well as discounted annual conference registration.
