Our baby chicks are arriving on Tuesday! They will be hatching sometime next week!

Tuesday is our final parent partnership meeting – we will be discussing finals it is VERY important for you to attend!

Book reports are due on Wednesday. Answers not in complete sentences and missing or uncolored pictures will cause your child to lose points!

Thank you for all of your support – please remember my responsibility in the school yard is your child, send any questions or concerns in a note! ☺
