Newsletter 13/2018
26 April 2018

Dear Parents

Quote for the Week:

"Difference between
school and life?
School teaches you lessons
and then gives you a test.
Life gives you a test
and you learn the lessons."

PLEASE NOTE:

Due to popular demand we have now, once again, added ham and hotdogs/cheese grillers to the menu.

The tuckshop has been assured that the ham and hotdogs/cheese grillers have been tested and there is no sign of listeriosis. The suppliers have also issued a Clearance Certificate certifying that the products are safe. These products are tested weekly and a Clearance Certificate will be issued on a weekly basis.

I trust this will put parents' minds at ease.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Term 2 collection:

Easter Eggs:

We are doing our Easter egg outreach to TLC very soon. Please send any easter eggs to Miss Budde's classroom.

Coins:

Wow! Thank you for the great response! We raised R2955,00 for the CHOC Foundation for childhood cancer. For a school of 1500 learners, that's R2 per child. We would like to set a bigger goal this term.. if each child brought R1 per week, ie. R10 per term, we could donate a very substantial R15 000,00 to TLC Home for abandoned babies. We can do this! Please send coins or notes to your child's class teacher. Thank you SO much in advance, Ms Pheiffer and Mr Lawrenz.

Matthew Downs Blanket Drive 2018:

In 2017 we completed our first "Matthew Downs Blanket Drive" and collected in excess of 350 blankets and lots of warm clothes! It was SO rewarding to be able to help those in need of warmth.

This year we would like to collect for the following charities:

L.O.T.S. (Life on the Streets Ministry) – blankets, good second hand men's shoes, socks and warm clothes.

Queenshaven – blankets

Epworth Children's Village – Blankets

Christways Religious Centre – Blankets

We would welcome good second-hand clothes and shoes that are suitable for winter. If you are donating blankets, the PEP grey blankets are particularly preferred because apparently the fancy blankets get stolen on the streets. The other more colourful ones will be donated to the children and the aged.

Thanking you in advance for your continued outpouring of generosity.

Hidden Treasures Charity Shop:

Thank you to all the learners who volunteered in the short holiday. Your dedication to the less fortunate is amazing! The offer stands for any parents or learners who would like to volunteer on Saturday mornings or in the holidays. Please chat to Ms Pheiffer. Thank you for the massive amount of donations. All money made on items sold goes towards supporting 270 orphans. Please send any second-hand toys, clothes, bedding, appliances, ornaments, etc. to Ms Budde. We will get a composite list of learners who assisted, but thus far, thank you to Loghan da Silva, Mrs da Silva, Keith van der Merwe, Daniella van der Schyff and Mrs van der Schyff, Meakin Scholtz and Thando M. Much appreciated!

INSPIRATIONAL STORIES – WITH MORALS.

The Mouse and the Lioness

This story about the mouse and the lioness teaches kids a wonderful lesson that should stay with them and help them grow.

The lioness, as we know, is fierce, proud, and tends to look down upon smaller animals. One such lioness was once skirting the jungle when a thorn pricked her paw. Being proud, the lioness decided not to ask for help. She went around the jungle, getting weaker and bleeding.

One day she chanced upon a humble mouse. The lioness was in a lot of pain. The mouse, though quite scared, was courageous enough to offer help. The little mouse after much pain and struggling, managed to pull out the thorn from the lioness's paw and freed her from her pain.

Even though the lioness was so big and powerful, and the mouse was so tiny and humble, it was the mouse's kind gesture that saved the lioness's life.

Moral of the Story

Be humble and never forget that size is no guarantee of power or usefulness.

The Sad Peacock

This is a beautiful story about making the best of what you have. A comparison is inevitable and starts pretty early in life. Though ambition is not a bad thing, there is usually a very thin line progressing to greed. It can run both ways, parents may end up pushing their children so hard that kids may end up frustrated. On the other hand, kids may end up demanding for more, without regard to what they have already and this may end up making them selfish.

Here is a wonderful story about a peacock who almost went the same way.

So, there was this once a beautiful peacock who was all but dancing on a rainy day. He was busy admiring his plumage. However, he was suddenly reminded of his shortcoming which was his rough voice. All the joy beaten out of him, he was almost in tears. Suddenly, he heard a nightingale singing nearby.

Listening to the nightingale's sweet voice, his own shortcoming became very evident. He began wondering why he was jinxed in such a manner. At that moment, when Juno, the leader of the Gods, appeared and addressed the peacock.

"Why are you upset?" Juno asked the peacock.

The peacock complained about his rough voice and how he was sad because of it. "The nightingale has such a beautiful voice. Why don't I?"

After listening to the peacock, Juno explained, "that every living being is special in his or her own way. They are and made in a certain manner that serves the greater purpose. Yes, the nightingale is blessed with a beautiful voice, but you are also blessed – with such a beautiful and glittering plumage! The trick is acceptance and making the most of what you have."

The peacock understood how silly he had been in comparing himself to others and forgetting his own blessings. He realised that day that everyone was unique in some way or the other.

Moral of the story:

Self-acceptance is the first step to happiness. Make the best of what you have rather than being unhappy about what you don't.

And finally

Regards

STUDY COURSE

Friday 18 May (14:00-17:00)

Saturday 19 May (9:00 - 12:00 & 14:00 - 16:30)

The study course is for learners from grade 4 up, and teaches children how to study effectively. We work on learning through association, how to remember what we have learnt, how to plan ahead, and how to answer a question paper.

A brain profile questionnaire is completed by each learner before the commencement of the course. Each learner's brain profile is then taken into account during the course in order to suit their unique preferences. The cost of the course is R1000.00, which includes the brain profile, a baroque CD, a file with all study material and a surprise for each learner to assist them with their newly acquired skills. The course consists of 3 sessions, which must all be attended.

An appointment must be made - at least a week before the course - in order to complete the brain profile questionnaire. A deposit of R400 is required to confirm the booking. Once the deposit has been paid, an appointment will be scheduled for the brain profile.

The learners learn very useful and practical techniques during the course and they walk out of the course motivated and ready to study.

Die studiekursus word in Afrikaans ook aangebied!!
