K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

BULLETIN

RAY'S REMARKS:

Hello brethren! I hope you all are having a great week. We had a wonderful Lord's day this past Sunday. It was good to be together with those we love in order that we could worship together before the throne of God and share a fellowship meal together. Thanks to everyone who stayed and made this time a great sacrifice before God.

We rejoice in the news that Naelith Hass put on Christ in baptism last week. We praise God for his obedience to the will of God and know his name written in the Lamb's book of Life. Nothing brings about more joy than the decision to become a Christian and submit your life to Him.

We also were able to learn about some of our members who need special prayers. Several of our family have lost jobs and are currently seeking employment, like brother Andy and Jason. Others have lost loved ones like sister Wanda. Still many more are dealing with health issues and or trials of life. So many are dealing with health problems that it's difficult to mention them all at this time. So please brethren, let's keep all of these needs before the throne of God. Also, please check the announcement sheet so that you might be able to remember those who are needing prayer and bring them before God's throne daily. Also remember sister Mary Jo and Marissa in prayer as they responded asking for prayers this past Sunday.

Well, I hope many of you are planning to give the Monday night classes a try. They start next Monday night at 6:30. We will have a class on the book of Romans, as well as a class on Word studies. Please take advantage of this time of growth in the Word of God. What a wonderful opportunity this will be to study the Bible.

Also, remember that we are only a little over a week away from our Gospel meeting. I hope you will be present at all of our services and opportunities to study God's Word. Let me also encourage you to invite someone else to join us for these times of Worship to God. We look forward to having brother Josh Ortiz with us on the 13th-16th. By the way, that Monday night class which is scheduled for the 14th will actually be moved to Thursday the 17th, only that week. Obviously, we can't have our classes going on while the Gospel meeting is in session.

Well, I look forward to seeing you all tonight at our mid-week services. May God bless us all as we continue to do His Will and as we are obedient to His Call. See you soon!

Ray Sullins

BAPTISM:

Naelith Hass put on Christ in baptism last Thursday night.
 We rejoice in his obedience!

RECENT RESPONSES:

Mary Jo Horst & Marissa Scharold

SYMPATHY:

Our sympathies are extended to Wanda McElfish and her sister, Betty & family in the passing of her brother-in-law, Jerry Ridenour, Sunday. Visitation is tonight (Wed) and the funeral is Thursday at 2 PM in Ava, MO.

Jerry's Uganda Update:

Dear brethren:

As you know, Edith and I just returned from Uganda. The work is going well. The new school building is now complete and is being used. Two staff houses will be ready for occupancy in two weeks or less.

While there Edith added over a hundred books to the Library. I was able to present lessons at the school and help them plan the completion of the project. One baptism took place while at the church that is in front of the school. I'll I share with you some pictures of our trip soon.

Edith and I did have some complications from the trip. I was bitten in three places while on the trip and we still don't know what caused the bites. Edith, on the other hand, also received a wound that Mercy failed to recognize. Although we did go to the Mercy ER, we were just given antibiotics and told to go to our regular doctor in two days. We are scheduling that visit ASAP. Other than that, we both made the trip in good fashion. A special thank you who helped support the trip with financial help and with prayers and encouragement.

The great thing about the work is that 18 men are still there studying the Word of God and preparing to preach the gospel in Uganda and in Kenya. I wish you could have been there to hear their stories concerning what they want to do in their lives.

DIRECTORY UPDATES:

Alton Levingston has moved to Alabama to be closer to his family. Also, remove Bailey Perkins from your directory.

ELDERS' CORNER:

Our prayers are extended to Jason and Marissa Scharold. Jason recently lost his job and will be hunting for new employment in the next weeks. It has put them into a difficult circumstance in life. Also remember Andy Heavin and family who are going through the same situation in their lives. We know the Lord will answer our prayers.

A special word of thanks to you all who gave extra on the 5th Sunday last week towards our building renovations. You always respond to our needs as a family. Soon our baptistry will be finished and we will be making our final decision on the roof of the building, etc. We will keep you informed.

SPECIAL MEETINGS! Our Gospel Meeting begins very soon. Brother Joshua Ortiz from the Lebanon church of Christ will be with us during the dates of October 13-16. The theme of his lessons will center around "TRUTH." Plan now to attend and bring someone with you. The lessons will open up our minds to the Truth of God's Word and give those who attend who aren't Christians a good understanding of what God requires of them as to their salvation.

Don't forget to remember Ray and Trey as they soon will travel to Zambia to teach and preach at the Zambia School of Biblical Studies. Our presence is much needed at all our works and we appreciate those who are willing to go. They will be going there in the hottest time of the year and we understand the electric power is only on for a portion of each day. We pray for their safe and successful journey and return.

See you at all our services.

Jerry and David
