NOVEMBER 24, 2019 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

Well from one extreme to another as always in the Ozarks, however what a beautiful day it is today. The sun is out, and I didn't even need a coat. It almost feels like Spring today, but we all know the reality and that the cold stuff will probably be back real soon.

I can't believe that it is already November 20th and that we are only a week away from Thanksgiving. I hope you all are making big plans to be with family and/or friends. It is always a special time of the year because hopefully we all think of just how blessed we are during this holiday season. Furthermore, it is a time to focus on others and all we have been given, before we enter into the Christmas holiday which has really become a time about getting stuff. Brethren, I hope we will all take more time throughout the year to realize just how blessed we are and to make sure and show it to God. Certainly, we are well blessed and have every reason to be thankful, however we are not always that good about showing it. So, hopefully we will take this time of thankfulness and remember all we have to be thankful for, to the glory of God and to the encouragement of our fellow man.

Brethren we still have many of our number who need to be remembered before the throne of God. Please make sure to keep up with the prayer list, so we can keep all of these needs before God.

On a positive note, we also have so many prayers which have been answered lately, based on our request and desires. Many are doing better and making improvements with their health and we thank God for all of His loving care and kindness. We serve a great and loving God! Yet another thing to be thankful for!

Finally, I want to say a big thankyou to brother Donny Gardner. Brother Donny, with the help of a few others, has remade our baptistry with a stainless-steel insert. It was a lot of hard work, but it now is complete, and we appreciate all of his time and efforts with this important labor. So many of you do countless works in the church and for the family at K.E., many which seem to go unnoticed. However, I want you to know that God knows and many of us notice all you are doing in your humble service to our God. Thank you all and we love you!

I look forward to seeing you tonight for our mid-week service. I know you will want to be present and ready to give God your very best. I hope you have a great remainder of the week as well, so that we may assemble again on the Lord's day to Worship our wondrous Creator. May God bless us all as we continually strive to do His Perfect Will. See you soon.

ELDERS' CORNER:

Things seem to be about the same with the K.E. family. As with any family, there are those among us who on a daily basis are dealing with health problems. Some are recovering from their illnesses and surgeries and some are holding their own. Constant prayer is needed for all. We know that God's help is very near for our asking. Our small announcement sheet is something we can keep close by to constantly remember that we need each other's prayers, cards, calls and visits. Why not make it your practice to at least call 5 members in need each week to let them know of your love and concern for them.

This week a special message was received from Alex Barasa in Uganda. Alex is the Director of the EASOBS, our preacher training school. He told of the good work that Scott Richards is doing during his month long stay in Uganda. Not only is he teaching a half of a day, 5 days a week but has been involved in evangelism on the weekends. There have been five baptisms since the first of this month. Three were baptized at the school congregation and 2 others at a congregation visited by brother Scott. Brother Richards visited with us a couple of months ago with his wife. They are the ones who live in the Atlanta, Georgia area. He is a faithful brother who will be visiting and working with at least two of our schools in Africa each year for a long period of time.

Next week, some of you may soon be traveling for the Holidays. Our prayers will be for your safety and happiness during your travels. Hope to see you at all our services.

In His service,
 Jerry & David
