RAY'S REMARKS:

K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

I hope you all are having a blessed week. It has been a great one so far and our VBS this year has been a huge success. We have had one of the best years for attendance in a long time. We have been blessed with lots of kids and adults as well. What a great year it has been and I look forward to our final evening tonight.

I also wanted to thank the many who decorated the auditorium and the halls. All the classrooms looked great as well. Our teachers and helpers have done an excellent job this year. Also, a big thanks to those who made cookies and those who organized and delivered them to the room. We just had so many helping this year and doing such a wonderful job! Again, I say THANKS, THANKS, THANKS!

Finally, thanks to everyone who attended and invited family, friends, neighbors and coworkers. What a wonderful way to praise God by being involved ourselves in helping others know Jesus as well. May God bless us all as we strive to do His will in all things.

Well, we got off to a great start this year at the BIM. We had our first chapel on Tuesday and our first day of classes was today (Wednesday). It is great to have our students back. Although we did not have any news students who we accepted this time, we still have some great men to work with in our second-year students.

We did have a lot of interest in the school and in those who want to come. However, there were just not enough strong candidates to begin a new class this year. We do look forward to starting a new class next August and hopefully we will be able to start with a few extras, since we are skipping a year. Please keep these things in prayer as we continue to work toward training preachers in our area of the U.S.

Well, I hope to see you tonight for the last night of VBS. It's going to be a great night and I can't wait to see all the kids and their excited faces again. How wonderful it is to be a faithful child of God and to be a part of such a loving family of God. Love you all!

"Just Live A Good Life Before People"

You will hear people say, "I think it's enough to be a good example before people and they will be drawn to the gospel by our lives." That, to many people is their only idea concerning evangelism. And it's a ridiculous idea.

Read again Luke 4:16-31. Think about it. For around 30 years Jesus lived among the people of Nazareth and led the perfect life. If ever simply living a good life before people was enough, everyone in Nazareth would have been a disciple of Jesus. But was that the case?

When He presented Himself and His mission to them not only did they reject Him and it, but they tried to kill Him. So much for just living the exemplary life as the only instrument of evangelism.

Folks, people are won by the message. Yes, the messenger's life can open or close the heart's door, but the message is what will ultimately be accepted or rejected. Good people must present the Good News.

Monte Ginnings

Preach the word!

Be ready in season and out of season.
 Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching.

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables.

2Timothy 4:2-4

ELDERS' CORNER:

What a great VBS we are having this year. Tonight concludes our study of the "Heroes of Godly Living" found in the Bible. Thank you to all who attended & helped make it a success. Thanks to all the teachers who brought Bible stories to life for our students. We also want to extend a special "thank you" to Julie Medley for organizing the auditorium décor and her helpers: Jennifer & Trinity Koontz, Jeanna & Donny Gardner, Eraweh & Rheleigh Hass & Julie Fielder. Thank you to the Koontz family and Marissa and Jason Scharold for the hallway and foyer entry décor and Jason for the "J" Jesus spotlight. Thank you, as well to Rose Mary Medley and Cindy Sullins who worked in the kitchen to make sure we all had cookies.

Brother Nathan Cozort and his wife Ashley presented our Couples Workshop this past weekend. We appreciate their presentations as well as all who attended. We had several visitors from the area.

A new school year is starting at the BIM. Keep the students and faculty in your prayers as they continue to train up gospel preachers.

We have many of our members who are struggling with their health and personal problems. Remember them in your prayers on a daily basis and try to encourage them. Send them cards to help lift their spirits. Call them and check on them, ask them if they have any needs. Help them if you can; if you can't, let one of the elders know.

Your Elders,
 David and Jerry
