JANUARY 17, 2016 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello brethren! I hope you all are having a good week so far. It sure has been cold lately. I think we got a little spoiled earlier this winter when temperatures were so mild. Now we are all ready for the spring!

Last Saturday we had a good number attend the men's breakfast. It is always a lot of fun and encouraging to be with our brothers for this spiritual feast. Brother Tyler Reid did our devotional for us and did a wonderful job. We have so many talented brothers and sisters in the congregation here. I hope many more of our brothers will take advantage of this monthly opportunity to fellowship and study God's Word! Yet another privilege to serve God!

It was great to gather Sunday for our first agape meal of the year. We had a really good turn out with several visitors as well. The food was really good also, and everyone who came was no doubt encouraged in their labors for God.

We certainly welcome the Carter family to our church family. It is great to have Daniel and Jessica as well as their children with us at K.E. Their children's names are Jade (who is already a Christian), Cole and Jack. Please make this good family feel at home among us. It is always great to have more help in the work of the Lord. I know this family is going to be a great asset to our work at K.E.

Let's also remember sister Ruth Sullins, as she responded Sunday morning asking for prayers for forgiveness and of strength. Also, let's remember Diego, as he made it known that he wants to be a stronger and more committed Christian, giving more time to God.

Brethren, we also have a lot of our family still dealing with health issues. Especially we need to remember sister Retha as she had major surgery on Tuesday. Everything went well with the surgery and so far so good. Let's keep sister Reva in our prayers as well. She still has been unable to get very much relief from her back problems. We have others who are recovering from a variety of health issues as well. Let's keep all of these needs before God's throne in prayer.

Well, I hope to see you all this evening for our mid-week service. What better way to reenergize and prepare ourselves for the remainder of the week. I also look forward to see you this coming Lord's Day. Until then, may God bless us all in His service!

Ray Sullins

RAISING EBENEZERS

We sing (sometimes with more perplexity than insight) the song: "Here I raise my Ebenezer, hither by Thy help I've come."

The word "Ebenezer" means "rock of help." It was the name Samuel gave to a monument erected to commemorate God's help in a victory over the Philistines God's help in a victory over the Philistines (1 Sam. 7:10-12).

We, too, need to raise some Ebenezers—markers in our lives which say, "Thank you, Lord, for bringing me this far..." After all, we are surrounded by blessings beyond our ability to count: material prosperity, friends and family, sight, hearing and mobility... We are children of God, with the blessings of salvation and the hope of heaven...

What kind of Ebenezers shall we raise?

GIVING: When I give thought to my prosperity, I can raise an Ebenezer by giving back to God or to the needy.

CARING: Perhaps I can thank God for my good health by taking time to visit someone who lacks it.

WORSHIP: I can express appreciation for my freedom to worship by using it! Study. Pray. Assemble. Sing.

EVANGELISM: When I consider how empty my life would be without Jesus and His Gospel, I can show gratitude by making it possible for others to hear.

Share the good news!

ELDER'S CORNER:

Greetings Church,
Hope everyone is having a good week. Sunday was a great day.

We had a lot of visitors with some being past members. Good to see them.

Great having Daniel and Jessica Carter along with their 3 children placing membership with us. They live in Springfield. Please make a special effort to meet them and make them welcome.

Our young men did a good job in leading singing, scripture reading and prayer.

We had a big group to join in the Agape meeting, lots of good food and fellowship.

We need to keep Tom and Anita in our prayers daily as they go to Texas for 4 to 5 months for treatments for Tom.

We have so many on our prayer list. Please pray for all of them who are having health problems.

Good to meet the budget on Sunday; hope we continue to do so. Maybe we will exceed it so we can do more for the Lord; He does so much for us!

We Love and Care for everyone,
Gary and Jerry
