BULLETIN
RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Happy Valentine's Day!

Despite the cold, it has been a beautiful week. God continues to bless our good family at Kansas Expressway and as always maybe keep in mind just how much we have to be thankful for.

We have some exciting news this week as we have a new brother in Christ among us. Many of you have had an opportunity to meet Carl Westerman who has visited with us for some time now. After studying with sister Mary and sister Jeanna he decided to obey God and follow the Gospel plan of salvation. Let's all welcome Carl to the family and encourage him in his new Christian walk. We thank God for our new brother!

Brothers and sisters, we have many of our number who are in need of continued prayer. Several have just completed serious surgeries and we need to remember them daily before God's throne in their recovery. In connection to this, please keep sister Reva, sister Jan, sister Mary Keeton and brother Leroy in your prayers. Also we have others who still deal with cancer treatments, specifically brother Tom (remember sister Anita as well) and sister Janet. You'll also notice from the list in this bulletin, that many other family members at K.E. are dealing with a variety of health issues. Brethren, we know the power of prayer, so let's keep all these important needs before God's throne.

Many of you have asked about the TV program last week. The Living Word was preempted by a Superbowl special on KOLR. We were unaware of this until it happened. Although we are under contract, KOLR did not contact us to notify us of this change. We are sorry for any inconvenience this caused, but the program should be back on this coming Lord's Day at its regular time.

Let me take a moment to encourage all the men of the congregation to consider coming to our monthly men's breakfast, which is at 8:00 this Saturday morning. We have been having some larger crowds lately and it is always a blessing to get together as God's people to encourage one another and to grow together in God's Word. You won't be disappointed if you give this time to God. Hope to see you there.

Well, I hope to see you tonight at our midweek service. Also, remember the importance of gathering with the saints on the Lord's Day. Why not give your best to God each and every day. God bless!
