THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

RAY'S REMARKS:

“This is the day that the Lord has made, I will rejoice and be glad in it!” Truly we are all blessed with another wondrous day of life. We all have so much to be thankful for our God gives us all we need in this life and way beyond. May we never take for granted the great blessing we have from our Creator, for every good and perfect gift comes from God.

I hope you all are having a good week. We certainly started the week out on a high note by having brother Tom and sister Anita with us on Sunday. It was even a greater blessing to see our brother Leon back with us. We serve a mighty and awesome God and He has certainly answered our prayers each and every time, and furthermore, even in the way we desire them to be answered. It is so wonderful to have a Loving Father who always hears us and does what is best for us as His faithful children. Our God is truly a good God!

Let's continue to remember all of our family in prayer who have special needs. We have many who are still recovering from surgeries and health issues, they no doubt need our continued prayers and encouragement. May we all do our part to encourage everyone in our family who needs it.

Brethren, please keep brother Bob Hyde in your prayers. He is dealing with some major life issues and decisions at this time and he responded Sunday evening asking for prayers and encouragement as he deals with these things. We know that God will work all things for the best, in this good brother's life. We love you Bob!

Can you believe we are already March? It looks like another year is flying by. I hope we are all making the most of each and every day in the service of God. Let's all be busy in the work of the Lord and give our Creator as much time and effort as possible, for certainly He is worthy of such. With that in mind, I always want to encourage us all in our faithfulness to worshipping God and give Him our best. We all know that the blessing and rewards of God make our every labor worthwhile. Are you seeking God first in all things?

I look forward to seeing you all this evening as we gather for our mid-week Bible study. What could be more important than giving some time to God this evening, to growing in His Word. May God bless us all as we continue to obey His Will and do all that He commands. In all things, to God be the glory!

ELDER'S CORNER:

Before you know it, we will be having our BIM Lectureship. This year it falls on the dates of May 15 - 18. The theme of the lectures will be: "And Having Done All to Stand" taken from Ephesians 6:10-18. We hope that this series of lessons will bring us all renewed courage to stand for what is right at home, at work and in the church. The Lord expects this of us all. Let us all plan to be at every lecture.

It was wonderful to see brother Tom and sister Anita at our services this past Sunday. His treatments seem to be working and we pray for his full recovery. Brother Wake was with us Sunday. It was great seeing him and to know that he is making some improvement. Remember sister Steely who is at home now and sister Reva who is still in rehab in your prayers.

We had a great men's meeting last Sunday with 17 in attendance. An update on what was discussed will be made available on request.

We hope to see you at all our services.
