MARCH 13, 2016 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello brethren! I hope everyone is having a great week. It is always a blessing to wake up every day and to have God on our side. I hope and pray we are serving God daily and giving Him our best. Our Creator is certainly worth it. There are several of our number who need special prayers this week. Let's especially remember sister Juanita Chaffin. She is in Mercy hospital in a lot of pain with several health issues. Let's keep her in our daily prayers.

We also have many who continue to improve after hospital stays and surgeries. May we keep them all in prayer, as well. Brethren, let's also keep in mind our many shut-ins, who are no longer able to be with us. These good brothers and sisters are often overlooked from time to time, but we all need to do a better job remembering them and keeping them before God's throne in prayer.

We are down to the last 2 weeks of classes for this quarter at the BIM. All of the students are working hard and doing well with their studies. It is great to see their continued dedication to growing in the things of God.

After this quarter, 4 of our men will begin their final quarter of studies. Let's keep them all in prayer. Also, pray for them as they begin their search for a place to work in God's Kingdom. I know they will all find their place and do great things for God. We also have several who are now preparing to start school as a new class, in August of this year. Please remember these men in their preparation for this good work.

Let me encourage you all to update your pictures for the picture boards in the foyer. Brother Bill will again be taking pictures before and after morning and evening worship this coming Lord's Day. I know many of you have updates in your family and you will want to get a new picture made. Thanks for your help with this matter.

Finally, let me encourage you all to take advantage of every opportunity to serve God and to gather to worship with His people. There is not a greater place be and no greater encouragement than being with God's family to Worship our Creator. I look forward to seeing you all this coming Wednesday and Sunday. In all things, to God be the glory. May God richly bless us all!

~~~~~
We are more than a family at K.E. We are one in Christ, showing God's will in so many ways. Each person doing what they can for others. So whatever you did for us over the past few weeks means more than words can say. We are so thankful for you all. Prayers-visits-calls- cards-food, we thank you, and if you could see in our hearts, you'd know how your actions have made us so thankful.

PICTURE BOARD UPDATES: MARCH 13th

~~~~~
Bill Heavin will be taking pictures for the boards in the foyer, in the sound room, before and after the morning and evening services. Everyone is welcome to have their picture taken/retaken.

DON'T FORGET:

Daylight Saving Time begins Sunday!

ELDERS' CORNER:

Greetings from your elders:

Hope everyone is having a good week. Sister Sherrie Clarke passed this week; she was the wife of brother Ted Clarke. Brother Ted taught at the Bible Institute of Missouri while living in the area. They lived in Memphis, Tennessee at the time of her passing. Brother Ted's address will be on the bulletin board; we might send him a card.

Sister Juanita Chaffin is in Mercy hospital dealing with health problems. They kindly request no visitors at this time, but sending a card would be nice.

We need to remember Tom and Anita while they are away in Texas for Tom's cancer treatments. Also, remember sister Reva, Reda and others in our prayers.

Brother Leon Wake and Tim and Deanna Giles came forward for prayers Sunday morning. Remember them your prayers.

The Agape teams are going well. We need to help the leaders and their wives in cleaning up after the meal. This would be a great help.

See everyone on Sunday. Also, Daylight Saving Time begins Sunday-so set your clocks ahead one hour so we can be there at the right time.
