MARCH 20, 2016 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello brethren! I hope you are well this week and enjoying this beautiful weather. It has been so nice to get outside and enjoy God's creation. Although we have had a mild winter, I think everyone is already ready for Spring, I know I am! I love that fact that many of our trees are budding, our flowers are coming to life, and even the grass is growing. I also love that fact that everyone seems to be in good spirits when the weather gets nice. Even at services you see a lot more smiles and hear a lot more visiting and laughter. It is a great blessing and privilege to be with the family of God.

We have several this week who need to be remember in special prayer as they have lost loved ones. We certainly sorrow at the loss of brother Johnie Hamilton, however, we rejoice that he was a great Christian and servant of God. Brother Johnie's funeral services were on Tuesday. We also learned on Sunday that sister Kay's mother passed away. We are also thankful that she was a Child of God. Remember that Juanita's funerals services will be tomorrow in Republic. Remember both of these good families in your prayers as they mourn the loss of their loved ones.

We also had a scare over the weekend with Donita. She was in the hospital with some kidney problems. Thankfully she is now home and doing better. I also wanted to mention sister Maxine Painter, a lady many of us have met who often comes with brother Mitch. She has been having some serious health problems and has been in the hospital since last weekend. Please keep her in prayer.

As you know there are many others on our prayer list. Please keep these brothers and sisters before God's Throne. No doubt, our God will always hear our prayers and do what is best for those whom He loves.

Remember brethren, make the most of today and every day. For just as the prophet once said, "this is the day that the Lord's has made, let's rejoice and be glad in it." Every day is a great gift and blessing from God! Oh, what a loving God we serve.

Well, I look forward to seeing you all this evening for our mid-week service. It is always a blessing to gather with the people of God. Also remember that this Lord's Day holds another opportunity to gather and give our very best to God. I know we will all want to be present. Until then, may God bless us all as we serve Him in our daily lives. To God be the Glory in all things!

ELDER ON CALL - MARCH: JERRY SULLINS

CHARACTERISTICS OF GOOD BIBLE TEACHERS

A good Bible teacher carefully examines the Master Teacher's life and methods. Here is a partial list:

Consecration: A teacher must be consecrated (dedicated, set apart) to the task of teaching as well as to the Christian life. A good teacher must be able to say, "It is no longer I that live, but Christ liveth in me" (Gal. 2:20).

Love: A faithful teacher has a strong love for God, His holy word and for the Lord's church. Study and prayer are not burdens to be endured. The faithful teacher loves serving God and loves other people. "Charity suffereth long, [and] is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, 5Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; 6Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; 7Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 8Charity never faileth..." (1 Cor. 13:4-8a).

Devotion: Good teachers feel devoted to the task of teaching and to those whom they teach. "And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you..." (2 Cor. 12:15).

Prayer: All Christians pray. Teachers have some extra names and activities on their list. We should pray that the work done will fulfill God's purposes. "Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of [this] calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of [his] goodness, and the work of faith with power" (2 Thess. 1:11).

Faith: Teachers cannot lead where they have not gone. If we want others to grow in faith, we must have a "good case" of it ourselves. "Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all" (1 Tim. 4:15). We must have faith in men as God's creatures who can be led to become more like God.

Purpose: No one can faithfully discharge the responsibility of teaching without having a thought-out purpose. Teaching is not an aimless baby-sitting or time-passing, but it is the attempt to teach God's will to God's children or to those we hope will become God's children. "He that winneth souls [is] wise" (Prov. 11:30).

Faithfulness: The teacher must be faithful to attend all church services. "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some [is]; but exhorting [one another]: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching" (Heb. 10:25). Children must not look for their Sunday teacher on Wednesday night and not be able to find him/her. Faithfulness extends beyond attendance. We must discharge every responsibility assigned. "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, 12Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world" (Titus 2:11-12).

Vision: Good teachers see what students can become and begin to lead them there. Long before a child believes in himself/herself, a teacher believes in him/her. "One of the two which heard John [speak], and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. 42And he brought him to Jesus..." (John 1:40-42).

Patience: It takes time to mold, shape, grow, and develop. "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine" (2 Tim. 4:2).

Cheerfulness: Stresses and strains come along the way, but good teachers are able to maintain an atmosphere of joy, humor, and peace. A faithful Christian is a happy Christian. "Rejoice in the Lord alway: [and] again I say, Rejoice" (Phil. 4:4).

Energy: A teacher's task is not easy. Plan ahead to have enough energy to match or exceed your students. Get plenty of sleep. "And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat" (Mark 6:31).

Preparation: Be well-enough prepared that you have overcome any dread of the unknown. Well-prepared teachers are excited teachers. They are full of the word and ready to teach it. "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2:15).

Cooperation: With so many others working as teachers, considerable cooperation is needed. Be patient if someone else has borrowed the materials you are needing. Work together. We're all striving for the same goal. "Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also [do]" (1 Cor. 16:10).

Perfectionism: Good teachers do not feel they have ever taught their best class. They always have a new idea, a different approach, and a better way. "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect" (Matt 5:48).

Planning: If a problem came up last week, this week, a good teacher has figured out how to handle it or avoid it. "Let all things be done decently and in order" (1 Cor. 14:40).

Thanks for your great attitude and constant good work! —
