BULLETIN

RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

What a wonderful Lord's Day we had this past Sunday. It was truly a blessing to gather as God's people and worship our Creator. A lot of our own family was gone due to the holiday, but we also had lots of visitors with us as well.

I hope everyone enjoyed their Easter weekend. Although we do not celebrate this holiday as a religious holiday, due the fact that it is manmade, we can still have a lot of fun with the secular elements of the day. I loved seeing the kids on Sunday with their bunnies, candy and painted eggs. It is a great blessing to see the joy on the faces of the children as they told me what they got from the Easter Bunny.

I know this is also an exciting time for grandparents as kids and grandkids come by and spend time showing love to one another. Again, I hope you enjoyed this holiday and made the most of it as you made memories with loved ones.

Let's remember to keep Caleb Blades in our prayers. He came forward Sunday stating that he had made some mistakes lately and was facing a difficult time. Let's all pray they he will have the strength he needs as a teenager to be a better son and to be a great servant of God. We appreciate his good heart and example in this matter.

This week, I will be taking the students at the BIM to Memphis for the Memphis School of Preaching Lectureship. We will be leaving Tuesday and returning Thursday. I think most of you remember having brother Keith Mossier with us for our meeting last year. This is the school which brother Keith works with. Dad will be speaking in the lectureship on Thursday. Please keep us in prayers that we may have a profitable time and a safe journey.

Speaking of the BIM, next Monday we will begin the last quarter of the second year for our final year students. It's hard to believe that Trey, Brandon, David and Thadd are all near graduation. I certainly have mixed emotions as Trey has become a fine young Christian man and a good preacher, but sometimes I miss my little boy (but don't tell Trey, haha)! I am so proud of his commitment, as well as Ruth's; they are truly a blessing from God. I also know that all these young men are going to do a great job in their service to God. Let's pray for them all as they continue to look for and consider places to serve in God's Kingdom.

I look forward to seeing you all this coming Lord's Day for worship. It is always a blessing and privilege to gather as God's people on His day. Until then, remember to put God first in all things. Remember, the faithful are always blessed!

ATTENTION GRADUATES:

If you are graduating in May or have graduated since the 2015 K.E. graduation reception, please contact Robbie Heavin no later than Wednesday, April 6th.

The reception is scheduled May 1st.

HERE IS WHAT I HAVE SEEN:

It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; for it is his heritage. As for every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given him power to eat of it, to receive his heritage and rejoice in his labor— this is the gift of God.

For he will not dwell unduly on the days of his life, because God keeps him busy with the joy of his heart.

Ecclesiastes 5:18-20

ELDERS' CORNER:

Isn't it great to be a Christian. We wish everyone was. Sure was good to see many past members present Sunday. It was so good to see Kalon & Melissa Brown and family. Good to see sister Mildred Gibson and members of her family. Sister Mildred is at The Gardens Independent Living.

Keep praying for the ones having health problems, especially Tom Long and Anita as she cares for Tom in Houston.

Sister Maxine Painter is back in Mercy Hospital and may be heading to a Rehabilitation facility in Ozark as early as today (Wednesday). Also, sister Reva Lewallen remains in the Maples Rehabilitation, maybe soon to go home.

Agape Groups 1 & 2 will meet Sunday after morning worship. Please bring what your leaders have asked.

Keep Ray, Jerry and the BIM students in your prayers as they are in Memphis part of this week at a lectureship. Pray that they have a safe trip.

Good news of the week: Sister Eraweh Hass was baptized this past Saturday night, late. It is great to see our young people added to the Lord's church.

Love to all,
Gary & Jerry
