BULLETIN

RAY'S REMARKS:

Sunday was another wonderful Lord's day in which we assembled as the family of God. It was such a nice day outside, as well as inside as we gathered before the throne of our Creator. It was certainly great to have our sister Cindy Gann with us. Let's continue to remember her in prayers. It was also a blessing to see brother Carroll at services Sunday night. I know he had another Chemo treatment on Monday, let's keep him in prayer as well. We certainly have many others which need to be remembered before God's throne. Especially remember brother Gene Keeton and the many others on our prayers list.

Sunday was also an exciting day because we had some responses to God's Word. We certainly want to remember our brothers and sisters in prayer, who came forward with various request. First let's remember brother Harry Clouse in prayer as he asked forgiveness of any sins and wants to live a better life as a Christian. Sister Donetta also responded asking for forgiveness of any sins, as she desires to live the Christian life in order to go to heaven some day. We also had our brother Jim Barnes come forward and ask forgiveness of sins. He wants to be a better child of God. Our sister Jan Green also responded to the invitation and asked forgiveness of any sins she has committed over the years or forgiveness if she has hurt anyone or done anything wrong. We certainly pray with her and know God has forgiven her. Finally, sister Carolyn Lee came forward and said she needs prayers of encouragement to be a stronger Christian example, as well as prayers for her family that they may have a greater love for God. She wants to help them to be better and true Christians.

All of these good brothers and sisters have challenged us all to think a little more about our own Christian lives. I really appreciate their example and willingness to make sure things are right with God and others. I hope we all desire the same thing and will do whatever is necessary to be what God requires in this life and before others.

Lord willing, Brent and I will be in Ghana this coming Lord's day. Please keep our journey in your prayers. I love you all and will miss you while gone. God bless!

THANK YOU:

Dear KE Family,
We want to express our thankfulness for every kind thought that you so lovingly shared at the loss of our unborn child. Though we are separated by time, we’re confident that our “Little A” is safe in the arms of our loving Father in Paradise and enjoys the blessings that await the faithful and the innocent. Thankfully, the day will come when the people of God know no pain; when the sorrows of this flesh are mere memory. For now, the trials we face are more bearable because of your kindness. So, thank you for your outpouring of love in the cards, the calls, the gifts, the prayers, the embraces and the tears you shared with us.
We love you all. In Love,

Seth,Jennifer,
Eraweh, T-Roy, Easton, Rheleigh, Naelith

us. In Christian Love, Ken & Carolyn

ELDER’S CORNER:

Greetings from the elders at K.E.,

We sure had a great youth meeting Sunday evening. We had several congregations from the area represented. A big thanks to Sister Brenda and staff for serving a good meal.

We want everyone to keep Ray and Brent in your prayers as they are going to be in Ghana working for the Lord.

As always, keep our Brethren that are having health problems in our prayers.

Pray for Harry and Donetta Clouse, Jan Green, Jimmy Barns and Carolyn Lee. They came forward to make sure their lives were right with God. Remember Hebrews 10:25.

Love to all,
~ Gary & Jerry
