BULLETIN

RAY'S REMARKS:

Well, our camp session is off to a great start so far. We have 62 campers and counselors full time on campus. We have also had several from the congregation come out from time to time to help out or to visit with our campers. So far the weather has been pretty good and all the major thunder storms have gone by on one side or the other of us. We have had some rain, but it hasn't been too bad over all. God has blessed us with a nice and safe week so far and we hope to continue safely through Friday.

There are always so many who help out with our camp session to make it a great success. I am so thankful for our K.E. family for all those who are ready and willing to get involved when there is a need to be filled. One of my biggest helps and encouragements to me for many years has been brother Bob Hyde. I love and appreciate him so much for his help. Our session wouldn't be the same without him or as successful.

Another important part of camp is the kitchen. I especially want to thank Rosemary Medley, who stepped up to the plate to oversee our kitchen this year. She is doing a great job and we appreciate and love her for what she is doing. There are many others who are involved, too many to mention all by name, but suffice it to say that we have been blessed with plenty of help once again.

This year is also an exciting and scary year because it is the first year that one of my kids, Nikki, is actually a counselor. Most of you remember little Nikki when we moved here in 1998, she was only about 4 or 5 years old. Now she is a counselor. She is doing a great job, but it sure makes me feel old.

Another neat part of camp is that so many of our former members and students connected to the BIM return to our session. Brother Kevin brings a big group from Paris, Arkansas, every year. This year brother Russ came from Kansas with several kids. And of course, we always have brother Brent and sister Dedra helping. Besides these, we have a good group from Carthage who always come and help.

I also wanted to thank my parents who have come each year and taught the girls and boys separately. We have other mixed classes with a variety of teachers and many devotionals, but my parents come and teach the whole week. I am thankful for them and appreciate them both.

I know there are others who I have not specifically mentioned, but I love and appreciate all of you for your help. God knows all things and you will be blessed!

Please continue to remember us all in prayer as we continue at camp throughout the rest of the week. We hope to have an encouraging and fun time of growth, fellowship and love for one another. We hope to see many of you Friday at the cookout. Until then, may God bless us all as we continue to do His Perfect Will. If I don't see you Friday I look forward to seeing you this Lord's day for Worship! I Love You All!

Did You Know?

Jonadab the son of Rechab gave his family many rules to live by.
More rules than God had imposed on his own.

But the sons of Jonadab honored all the rules their father had given,
and sadly the children of Israel had not.

God commended the Rechabites and condemned His own.

He would bless the Rechabites and bring evil on his own.

Read Jeremiah 35 for the full story.

ELDER'S CORNER.

Greetings from the elders at K.E. We want to take this opportunity to wish the best for Jesse and Kelsey Young as they start their lives together. They had a lovely wedding this past Saturday at the Sparta church.

The annual camp session started this past Sunday, pray that all will go well.

Brother Andy preached Sunday evening and did a great job. Thank God for people like Andy.

We need to keep those on our prayer list for medical problems in our prayers daily, especially keep brother Tom Long as he's dealing with cancer. Also, sister Anita as she deals with Tom's health.

Sunday, June 30th will be our 5th Sunday special contribution. Every dollar helps the elders to continue the good work.

Brother Wesley has been away in Texas tending his mother. She is having health problems. Keep Wesley in your prayers as he travels.
Don't forget Hebrews 10:25.
