BULLETIN

RAY'S REMARKS:

Well, we had a great time at camp last week! Everyone seem to have a good and profitable time. I was also excited to hear that one of our campers, Ashton Curl from Bolivar, was baptized last night. It is certainly a blessing to be able to spend time with those you love and to grow together in Jesus Christ. It is also a great blessing to make new friends and brethren who joined us this session. God truly blessed us all.

Last week I mentioned several who made our session a huge success, including many of you. However, I ran out of room before I was able to thank the rest of our full time helpers. As always, Brent Green was a great helper this year. Brent organizes our sports and teaches classes and devotionals while at camp. He always does a great job.

We also had many counselors who were full time at the camp. Besides those mentioned last week, we had Ethan, Dennis, Scott, Junior, and on the girls side, Samantha, Crystal, Laurie, Minnie. Again, I can't say enough to thank everyone for all they did! God bless!

Let me also take a moment and remind everyone about our 5th Sunday coming up this week. We will have a Potluck after morning worship. Also remember that we will have our 5th Sunday contribution. We need to make up for about a $1500 short fall in our budget, and we need to cover several thousand on the additional cost of the A/C units which were stolen. Let's all do our best to help cover these important needs. Thanks in advance.

Well, it is really hard to believe that July starts next Monday. This summer, and year for that matter, are really flying by. With the coming of July we think of the 4th! I hope you all have a good time with family and friends during this brief holiday. We certainly have a lot to be thankful for as Americans for the freedoms and liberties we enjoy today. God has truly blessed our nation.

I hope to see all of you in worship this coming Lord's day. Until then, always put God first in all things and you'll never regret it. God bless!
