BULLETIN

RAY'S REMARKS:

What a great weekend we had together as we assembled before the mighty throne of God. We had a good number present last Sunday and everyone really seemed to be happy and joyous. No doubt, the nice weather lately has contributed to our happier attitudes. Anyway, let's enjoy such blessings from God during such times of the year.

Well, the BIM is off to a great start. We began classes on Monday and it was good to see our second year students back and ready to work. They have a very heavy work load at the beginning of the second year, so please keep them in your prayers. Also, remember the faculty, supports and others who are involved in making the school a success. We might also pray that God will help us find more interested men to train, that we may be able to help fill the pulpits of this land with good, sound, men of God.

I think by now, all school systems in our area have started, including all of the colleges and universities. You may have noticed that we already have some new faces visiting among us. We always have quite a few college age young people who worship with us during the school year. Let's make them feel welcome and encourage them during this important time in their life.

Another important event I would like to remind you of, which is scheduled for the near future is our Fall Gospel Meeting. It will take place on October 13-16 and our guest speaker will be brother Jack Williams. Brother Jack preaches for the 39th Street Church of Christ in Independence, MO. (a suburb of Kansas City). They are a good, sound congregation and they support a lot of our works, including the Bible Institute of Missouri. Brother Williams is a fine gospel preacher, as well as an elder at the congregation. I know you will mark your calendars now so that you will be a part of this important time of growth in the things of God.

Well, I look forward to our assembly this coming Lord's day. Will you be present? There is no greater place to be, than before God's throne with your family, worshipping our loving Creator. See you Sunday! God bless!

Thank you for your help in keeping our pantry stocked!

ELDERS' CORNER:

Greetings from the elders at K.E.

Sunday was a great day, great for serving our Lord in worship. Great day for agape groups 2 & 3. We appreciate the leaders & co-leaders for taking care these groups.

All the kids are back in school by now.
We wish them a great year.

The BIM started Monday. Keep the students and the instructors in your prayers.
With that, the Monday evening class will begin August 26th. There will be one class at 7:00 until 8:00 P.M. with different teachers each night. The subjects will deal with moral issues. Please try to attend all or some of these classes. It will also be online if you choose to watch from home.

Please continue to pray for all who are having health problems. Nancy, Tom and David are struggling with different issues. Sister Karen Ewing's mother will have surgery on Thursday. Keep them in your prayers also.

Please be planning to attend each meeting of our fall gospel Meeting with brother Jack Williams from the 39th congregation in Independence.
