THE K.E FAMILY LIFELINE

RAY'S REMARKS:

We had a great weekend together as God's people at Kansas Expressway. Our Couples Workshop was a huge success with a good number present and lots of visitors. Thanks to all who came and to those who were involved in this time of spiritual growth. Also, another thank you to brother Chuck and Jeremy for speaking at the gathering.

Sunday was a wonderful Lords day. We had a good number present, again with lots of visitors. There were also many who stayed for the Agape Meal. Thank you to all who continue to make this program of fellowship and work such a big success.

I can't believe it, but Trey and Ruth will be getting married in just a few day. They seem excited, but the stress of weddings and preparation weariness is taking its toll. I have been involved in many weddings in my life and it's strange to me how wedding times are always so stressful. However, they accomplish one of the most important tasks as ordained by God, making His Creation husband and wife. Please keep Trey and Ruth in your prayers. We look forward to seeing most of you this Saturday for the wedding.

My parents return today from Africa (Wednesday). They get in around 7:00 p.m., while we are beginning services; so we won't get to see them tonight. Let's all continue to pray for their safety and wellbeing. I know their trip was a great success.

VBS will be here before you know it. Thanks to all of you who have volunteered to teach and to help in various way. We have so many good workers and helpers at K.E. It's also time to begin inviting family, friends and others to this time of encouragement and growth. Kids always love VBS, so let's do our part to make as many aware of it as possible.

Finally, some more great news! We have another man who has made the final commitment to come to the BIM, starting in August. His name is Brandon Hall. He has begun the process of fund raising and has already made one trip down here to secure an apartment. Let's keep him and his good family in our prayers as he raises the needed funds to be a part of the school. Also let's remember all those who are attending this August. We have 4 fine young men who have made the commitment to study the Word of God. Praise be to God.

I look forward to seeing you all in worship this Lord's day. Remember to put your God first in all things and you will never regret it. See you Sunday. God bless!

ELDER'S CORNER:

Greetings from the elders at Kansas Expressway church of Christ,

We had several visitors Sunday for a great lesson presented by brother Ray.

We had a good group for the agape meeting and lunch. We would like to thank all the leaders and co-leaders for their time to plan the meeting and meals. Also, thank you to brother Wesley for overseeing this great program. Please take time to attend.

VBS will soon be here, we still could use some teachers.

Brother Jerry & sister Edith should be returning tonight (Wednesday.)

The son-in-law of Gary & Marilyn has finished his chemo treatments. He will remain in Barnes Hospital in St. Louis until late August. Keep him & his family in your prayers. We have several in our congregation dealing with health problems.

Keep in your prayers also Trey & Ruth who will be married Saturday, July 26th. We want them to have a very successful marriage. Be here at 2:00 P.M. for their wedding.
