RAY'S REMARKS:

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Today is December 31, 2014, the last day of this year and tomorrow will usher in a new year. It is hard to believe that we have completed another year and that we are now ready to start 2015. This year, like most, has really flown by and ever reminds me of the brevity of our lives in connection to the grand scheme of things.

However, I hope this makes us all realize just how blessed we are with life, despite the fact this it is like a vapor. This knowledge should challenge us to really make the most of each day of life and to make sure we do our very best to enjoy every moment. I hope we will each take the time over the next few days to tell our loved ones and friends how much we love and appreciate them. Why not give others a hug and let them know how much you care for them. Furthermore, let's all consider the beauty of each day and moment within life and cherish the wondrous blessings from God that we have been given.

All these things should remind us of just how much we need God. Without God we would be hopeless and sure to fail, but with God we are victorious and can do all things through Christ! It's beyond me why so many of this world continue to reject the Savior and look for hope in the things of this life, those things which are passing. I often wonder how they make it through another day, let alone the days of trial and struggle; but perhaps they really don't. I am so thankful for my Creator, my church family, and the many blessings which God has given me. I know I will be always be successful with God and the faithful on my side.

So let's set some specific goals for 2015 and do our best to accomplish them. However, let's take the time and energies necessary to fulfill the goals we set. Remember, proper planning, organization and work is required to get the job done. Aren't God and His promises worth the effort? Aren't our souls and the souls of our friends and family worth the time? We will never go wrong by putting God, His Word, and our service first and foremost in life. Will you give your best to the Creator?

I look forward to seeing you all next year in our first worship assembly of 2015. What a wondrous and glorious day it will be to gather before God's Throne and to praise His Perfect Name! Keep in mind, God always cares for and provides for His own! God Bless.

ELDER ON CALL FOR JANUARY, GARY DALTON

ELDER'S CORNER:

The New Year is here! We have been blessed with so much throughout our lives and now we have another blessing. We have been given the opportunity to serve God and one another in a new year. Maybe a good challenge for us all would be, "As we therefore have opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially those of the household of faith." Galatians 6:10 It's not that we have not already been striving to do so but maybe this coming year we can do even more. For all the good that you have done this past year we want to thank you for the way you have given yourself to God and to others!

We want to take this opportunity to thank brother Ray and his family and for the great encouragement they are to all of us. They have faithfully served for many years. May God continue to bless them with good health and happiness in this new year.

What a blessing! The twins have arrived! Congratulations to the Koontz's for the two healthy souls that have been brought into this world.

Let's remember Sarah Cartwright in the passing of her grandfather this week. These are difficult times for all of us.

Please keep brother Chuck Northrop in your prayers as he is presently on a Mission trip in Mexico.

Remember our loved ones in your prayers who are dealing with health problems on a daily basis.

Our prayers are that you will all have a Wonderful, Prosperous, Healthy and Happy New Year!

Laurie Macy is in the process of being scheduled for surgery to have either a part of or a complete removal of one kidney. She requests the prayers of the church in hopes she will be able to keep part of the kidney.
