THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

RAY'S REMARKS:

Well, we made it. It is now 2015 and this year started out with some blistering cold. We even had a slight dusting of snow this morning and it is supposed to get even colder tonight. Anyway, it has still been nice to see the sun out most days. The sun certainly helps it to warm up some and I think it lifts our spirits a little as well. All I can say is crank up the heat or fireplace and enjoy the blessings of this life which God has given us. We have all been so richly blessed as Americans.

The BIM is back in full swing. I am so proud of our present student body. They all seem so eager to learn and so interested in training to be preachers. I think this is going to be one of our better classes. I am also excited about those who have already committed to being in August of this year. I think right now, we already have 3 for sure and others are considering coming as well. Let's all keep the Bible Institute of Missouri in our prayers. Specifically, let's remember the work in general, its supporters, its faculty, its present students body, and those who are preparing to join us as students in the near future. We have so much to be thankful for in connection to this good work and the part we all play at K.E. to see it succeed.

Today, I also go and tape programs for the new year for the Living Word Program, for the first time this year. The Living Word is still doing a great job in reaching out with the gospel of Christ in this area. It is still estimated that we have around 5000 who view the program each week. Many of these are members of the church who are shut-ins or in assisted living homes and have no other opportunity to get out and go to worship with the saints. There are also many denominational people who watch the program. Hardly a week goes by that someone in Springfield doesn't say they recognize me from watching the program. Many of you have this same experience on a regular basis, as you are in the singing portion of the program. Anyway, we are still doing a great work together through the Living Word Program and frankly are accomplishing a need as well as an evangelistic thrust which could not be replaced by any other means. Please keep this good work in your daily prayers as well as the many souls it reaches.

I look forward to us gathering this weekend before God's Throne to lift up His Wondrous Name! In the meantime, let's all make sure to put God first and give Him our very best, each and every day. Brethren, we truly can do "all things through Jesus Christ who strengthens me (each of us)!" God bless!

THANK YOUS:

Dear K.E. Family:
As we approach this New Year we have to thank God for keeping His loving and protecting hand over us all! Just as we all thank God for all of His many blessings in 2014, I must also thank each of you for the love and concern you shower my family and me with, too. Whether you sent an encouraging agape note, birthday or holiday message, or just gave a supportaive hug in passing, it was duly noted & appreciated!! Each time I asked for prayers for my family members, I saw proof in the power of prayer by many. What a great God we serve! What an awesome church family to have! May God continue to bless us all!

In Christian Love, Dovia Evans and the Allen & Evans families

Thank you for all the many cards we received for our birthdays, anniversary and Christmas!

David & Sandi Robison

Thank you to everyone who had a part in putting together the lovely Holiday Baskets. I loved every bit of mine! Thanks also to Sandi Robison for delivering it and for the wonderful visit.

Love, Marge Langston

K.E. Church of Christ,

ELDER'S CORNER:

Hope everyone is having a good week. It looks like winter is here with all this cold weather. Please try to stay out of the cold.

The 2015 Directory was presented Sunday. Hope everyone finds it helpful. The budget is in the book. We need everyone to try to meet the budget. If we meet the budget we will not need the 5th Sunday special contribution.

Thank you for the good wok many have done in 2014. Big thanks to Ray and Julie for the work put in to make the directory possible.

The New agape assignments are also in the directory. Agape groups 1 & 2 will be meeting this Sunday after services. If you are in this group, please make an effort to be present and bring what our leaders have asked.

We have a very long list of our people who are having health problems. Pray daily for better health in 2015.

We thank all of our Bible class teachers; they are doing a great job.

Gary & Jerry
