RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

We had a great crowd this past Labor Day weekend and despite the fact that some of our own family were out of town, we had a lot of visitors with us. We were blessed with a good day of worship to God and I know that all who were present were encouraged in their service to our Creator.

I also hope that everyone had a great Monday! My family certainly enjoyed spending some time together. Everyone voted for Chili, so I made two big pots, as well as some homemade ice cream; and yes we all overate! We also played some games and enjoyed one another's company. Life is so good and God has blessed us so much. Brethren, we all have so much to be thankful for!

Wow, we have really had some rain the past few days. It is some of the hardest and sustained rain we have seen in a while, so it was nice to see. Just when our yards were beginning to brown a little, we once again receive showers of blessings.

When I think of rain, I always remember the years that Cindy and I lived in Botswana, Africa. Obviously, living on the edge of the Kalahari Desert we didn't have hardly any rain during the year. Even during what they called the rainy season, the rains were light, few and far between. I always found it interesting that the Botswana currency is called "Pula." Well, guess what Pula means? It means rain! The most precious thing to those living in Botswana was the rain that God would bless them with from the heavens. It was always a happy day when it would rain in Botswana.

We are so blessed in our country with a variety of seasons, plenty of food and water, etc. I am afraid that sometimes we have been so blessed that we forget how to enjoy the more obvious and simple blessing of this life, like rain! I guess as the old saying goes, "You never realize what you've got until it gone." This certainly is true, because we definitely missed the good U.S.A. rains while living in Botswana.

I am so happy that sister Carolyn Lee was able to go home last Sunday. Let's keep her, and brother Harry in our prayers after their surgeries. We also have others still recovering from surgeries and health issues. Let's remember them all daily before God's throne.

Well, I hope to see you tonight at our midweek service. I also look forward to this coming Lord's Day, which will be here before we know it. Until then, put God first in all things, and know that you will be greatly blessed. See you soon!

ELDER ON CALL FOR SEPTEMBER: GARY DALTON

SEEK PEACE

Peace is positive.
Something to seek.
And when it is sought,
it is apt to be found,
for most people respond in the manner
you treat them.
Peace is the tolerance of faults,
the willingness to give a little,
the triumph of principles,
the unselfish pursuit of right which is stronger than might.
The peacemaker has a reconstructed view of life which puts the time and talent of conflict to a better cause.
He does more than put up the sword-
he beats it into a plowshare.
He does more than lay aside the spear-
he forges it into a pruning hook.
He overcomes evil
with good.

1 Peter 3:11

"Let him turn away from evil and do good;
Let him seek peace and pursue it"

SOMEONE ELSE

(Philippians 2:3, 4)

*Someone else is sick;
you can visit them (Matthew 25:37).

*Someone else is frightened;
you can reassure them (Psalm 23:3).

*Someone else is tired;
you can share their burden (Galations 6:2).

*Someone else is sad;
you can cry with them (Romans 12:15).

*Someone else is confused;
you can provide useful informantion (Acts18:26).

*Someone else is lost;
you can point them to Jesus (Acts 8:35).

*Someone else is in need of God's help;
you can pray (James 5:16).

*Someone else is walking down the wrong path;
you can humbly and gently correct them (Galations 6:1; James 5:19,20).

*Someone else is angry (maybe at you);
you can love and pray for them in spite of it (Matthew 5:44).

*Someone else is neglecting the assembly of the saints;
you can gently remind them of their duty and need (Hebrews 10:24, 25).

*Someone else is happy;
you can laugh with them (Romans 12:16).

*Someone else is succeeding in life and reaching their goals; you can congratulate them (Romans 12:16).

*Someone else is a new Christian;
you can encourage them (Acts 9:27).

*Someone else is new to the community;
you can befriend them (Acts 18:1-3).

*Someone else is mourning over their sin;
you can forgive them (Ephesians 4:32).

*Someone else is encouraging and supporting you;
pass it on to someone else.
