RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

I hope everyone is having a great week. We rejoice that dad continues to improve after his open heart surgery. Little by little he continues to regain strength and to feel a little better. However, the reality is, the road is going to be slow and long until he is back feeling like himself again.

It is hard to believe that we have had so many have open heart surgeries this year. Brother Gary, my mom and now my dad. We have also had many others who have had surgeries of all sorts. Isn't it great to know that God is always with the faithful and helping us each step of the way! Furthermore, isn't it great to be a Christian and to have brethren for encouragement and support during such times. Our family certainly is a blessed one with so many answered prayers according to the will of God. Let's continue to pray for all those on our prayer list who have needs, we certainly are a people who believe in the power of prayer.

Since dad is going to be recovering for a little while, all of the teachers at the BIM are kicking in to cover his classes. I appreciate brother Chuck, brother Brent, and brother Tim for their willingness to help and teach extra classes to cover for dad until he feels like coming back. We have so many good brethren who are willing to help out and do extra in times of need.

Can you believe we are already in the month of November. This year continues to fly by and it will be over before we know it. Let's continue to make the most of every day as we close out this good year. There is so much to do in the Kingdom of God. Let's always do our best to fulfill our individual parts in the Kingdom of God.

Well, I hope to see you tonight at our midweek service. It is always a blessing to gather as God's people and to worship before His throne. Also, I look forward to seeing you all this coming Lord's Day as we assemble to glory and praise our Creator! I know we will all want to be there. May God bless us all as we strive to do His Will and as we accomplish His good pleasures.

Thank You:

Thank you so much for making my birthday one of the best. My gifts were funny, cute, useful and delicious! My beautiful cards were a joy to read- I have read them over and over again. They mean so much and are so wonderfully, encouraging. The little bear that moves when I push his belly keeps me company, too. Thanks for all your well-wishes.

Love, Erma

Love Is...

...Love is perhaps the most over-used and least understood word in any language. But what is its essence?
...To love without condition means selfless reaching out, a giving up, putting the other person first.
...Love forgives, and doesn't look back.
...Love holds on, and doesn't give up.
...Love doesn't measure past faults.
...Love stands up and braces against the challenges of life.
...Love is strong. Love is soft.
...Love is amazing when you feel it flowing out, and overpowering when it comes in like a tide.
...The greatest love is not found in a season of new. It can only be fully discovered and revered in maturity. How can we know what we have without comparison, without recognizing we've weathered and grown? And how can we know how strong love is unless it has been through the fire?
...We can only know we love unconditionally when we've confronted conditions.

~John Gipson Via the Curry St. Bulletin

"Greater love has no one than this,
than to lay down one's life for his friends.

You are My friends

if you do whatever I command you."

John 15:13-14

ELDER'S CORNER:

Greetings from your elders:

Hope everyone is having a great week. Bro. Jerry will probably go home today, Wednesday. Keep him in your prayers as he will be confined to his home for several days. Keep all in your prayers that are having health problems.

Bro. Trery Sullins gave a very good sermon on Sunday night. All of our young men at the B.I.M. are gaining Bible knowledge by the good instructors. Thank God for all of them.

The Agape group that met Sunday had some good fellowship and great food. If you are assigned to these groups try to attend the meetings.

Our contribution has been down for several weeks. Sunday was very good, though. Please help to meet our budget so we can do good work for the Lord.

Please keep bro. Wesley's mother in our prayers as she is having health problems. She lives in Texas.

Your elders,

Gary & Jerry
