NOVEMBER 15, 2015 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello brethren. I hope you are all having a great week. The colder weather has been nice, but it seems like today things have really warmed up. I know we are also supposed to have storms today. My prayer is that all will be safe and that we will enjoy the benefit of the much needed rain.

Dad continues to improve from his surgery. He no doubt has his good days and bad days, but overall I think he is improving little by little. It is just going to take a long time to get his strength back, but we know God is good and will care for him every step of the way. Please remember mom as well, as she cares for dad. You know she is still recovering herself from this same procedure only months ago. However, so far she seems to be doing ok in caring for dad during this time. Please remember both in prayer!

While dad has been out due to his health, all the teachers at the school have been covering his classes. I have been able to teach the New Testament Church class, as well as the Preacher and His Work 2, to our first year students. I am enjoying teaching these men as they develop their skills and knowledge to be better servants in the Kingdom of God. All of our students are doing a great job.

I was happy to hear about brother Leon's angiogram. We thank God that he had no blockage, however, we need to continue to pray for him as he tries to deal with a few health issues. Let's pray for Marcella as well as she helps him during this time.

Can you believe that we are only a few weeks away from Thanksgiving. I am getting hungry just thinking about it! It always amazes me as well, how that every year the Christmas Holidays seems to start sooner. Oh well, I do look forward to spending time with family and friends during this special time of the year. It is always a blessing to have such times with those we love.

I look forward to our assembly tonight as we gather for our midweek service. I also know that we will have the privilege of gathering this weekend for another opportunity to worship our God together on the Lord's Day. I hope to see you at every opportunity which we have to gather as God's people. Certainly, there is no greater place to be than before God's throne, worshiping our Creator with brothers and sisters in Christ. Oh, how blessed we are as God's people!

THANK YOU:

Dear Brother & Sisters at Kansas Expressway,
We were overjoyed at being invited to spend time with you and enjoyed our fellowship together. Thank you ladies for the good food you prepared on Sunday. You are very good cooks. A big thanks to those who graciously had us in their homes and those who took us out to eat. We Thank you.

It was wonderful to spend time with Jerry and Edith whom we consider a godsend to us many years ago to get us on the right track to serving God. (We are praying for you, Jerry, to get well.)

We enjoyed our stay with you and pray God's blessing on all your good works in Springfield. We love you all. Until we see you again, either in this life or in Heaven, Keith & Dorothy Mosher

Thanks Dear ones in Christ:

2015 has been a very difficult year for many of us. Little did Edith and I know the challenges we would face. Two heart surgeries later we know that it has been a year of blessings. God has shown His love and mercy to us both. We are both on the mend and if all goes as it is now, we hope to have many more years in His service. A great feeling of gratitude is extended to our K.E. family for your thoughts, cards, prayers and visits. It means so much to us. We love you all!

Jerry and Edith

IN REMEMBRANCE:

Wilma Jean (Carr) Lower passed away November 2nd. She and her family, the Carrs, were longtime members at Johnston & Dale. Her service was Saturday at the Killingsworth church of Christ in Bolivar.

ELDER'S CORNER:

Hope everyone is having a good week. The weather has been beautiful lately.

We had good services on Sunday. Our young men took part in the P.M. service and did a great job, as always.

This Saturday will be the Men's Breakfast at 8:00 a.m. Waffles, bacon and eggs will be served and a good devotional. Please, men, try to be present.

Our contribution was very good the first quarter, but not so for the rest of this year. November has five Sundays; please help make up for these low weeks. And also, we'll have our Fifth Sunday Potluck.

We still have many having health problems. Please remember to keep them in your prayers, especially brother Jerry Sullins as he is recovering from heart surgery.

Be thankful for Richard, Rosemary and Julie Medley for keeping the building clean. Thank you to Charles Williamson and Mary Patchell for driving our van, Julie Fielder for being our secretary, also for our elders, deacons and each member for their faithful attendance.

*Brother Leon Wake had an angiogram Tuesday which showed no blockage; for this we are thankful.

**Remember the pantry has a shortage on canned items: meat, pasta, chili, fruit, etc. Thanks for your help.

Your elders,

Gary & Jerry
