RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Well, this morning I heard on the news that we might have our first chance of a light snow near the end of this week. I guess it's that time of the year and before we know it we will be in our winter months. As you know, I do love snow. Of all of God's creation it is one of the most impressive beauties to me, which shows His true magnificence and power. Can you recount the words of the prophets of old as they spoke about the wonder of the snow? Certainly, God has great treasures of snow, as well as all that He desires according to His perfect and complete power. Brethren, we serve a Mighty God!

I am thankful that Dad continues to improve after his surgery. I know it will be a long road to get his full strength back. However, we are so thankful to God that he continues to improve and head in the right direction. Please remember Mom in prayer as well, as she cares for Dad; as we all know she is still recovering some herself from her own open heart surgery. I know that even brother Gary, is still trying to get his full strength back after his surgery earlier this year. Let's remember all of our family as they strive to deal with various trials in life and health issues. We know that with God's help we will always make it through. So as we look at the many trials of this year, and it definitely has been a full year for our family, we must remember God continues to bless us all and to answer our prayers as we desire. We serve a great, loving, caring, merciful and gracious God. We are a very blessed people of God!

Next week is Thanksgiving! I'm looking forward to all the good food and to spending time with family. It is always a blessing to be a part of such enjoyable time of the year. I hope we will all take some extra time and consider just how much we have to be thankful for. We have so much in this life and so many blessings as American citizens. God has given us so much in this life and He continues to bless us every day. So brethren, let's "count our many blessing and name them one by one." How thankful we should be to God for His lovingkindness!

Well, I look forward to seeing you this evening for our mid-week service. Remember that the Lord's Day will be here before we know it and there is no greater place we could be than to gather as God's people to worship Him. Will you be present and ready to give God your best? See you Sunday! God bless All!

Does Every Man Have a Right to His Own Belief?

By: Garland M. Robinson-Seek The Old Paths

In one sense, everyone does have a right to their own belief. God has given each one the freedom to do or not do what they choose. God does not interfere with one's freedom of choice. However, that does not mean each person is right with God when they choose their own way. "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Proverbs 14:12). To follow your own counsel has never been right with God. Men have always done "...that which was right in his own eyes" (Judges 17:6). Man cannot direct his own steps (cf. Jeremiah 10:23). On the other hand, there is only one belief acceptable with God, HIS! Jesus "...said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow ME" (Luke 9:23). "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6). All who do not believe in Jesus, though sincere in their belief, will not and can not go to heaven. So, NO, everyone does not have the right to their own belief. To be acceptable with God, one must believe and do things God's Way. Ephesians 4:4-6 says "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." The "one body" is the church (Ephesians 1:22-23). Since there is only one body and the body is the church, there is only one church. Therefore, one church is not as good as another. Everyone does not have a right to their own belief about the church. You either believe God's Way or are wrong. If one does not believe and embrace the "one Spirit...one hope...one Lord...one faith...one baptism...one God," then he is wrong. People often believe in the one Spirit, one Lord and one God but then turn around and say they believe there are many bodies, many faiths and many baptisms. Yet, the Bible clearly says there is one body, not many; one faith, not many; one baptism, not many. To be right with God, I do not have a right to my own belief. It's not acceptable with God for you to go your way and I go mine. We either embrace God's Way or stand contrary to His Way.

ELDER'S CORNER:

A note from your elders:

Hope everyone is having a great week. Sunday night, brother Ray gave a report on his and Brent Green's trip to Africa. Many have made this trip. The brethren there are so happy to see the brethren from the USA. A big thanks for the ones that made this trip possible.

Brother Jerry Sullins is still at home recovering from his heart surgery. Keep him and his family in your prayers.

November has five Sundays and, as always, we are short of our budget. Please help make up this deficit. Also, being so close to our Thanksgiving holiday we are not having our potluck dinner.

We hope everyone will enjoy a family get-together on Thanksgiving. We have so much to be thankful for.

Please continue to keep all of our own that are having health problems in your daily prayers.

We want to thank all that are doing extra duty in teaching at the BIM until brother Jerry will be able to be back to normal.

See you on Sunday for Bible study and Worship service.

We care about you,

Gary & Jerry
