NOVEMBER 29, 2015 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Well, here we are in the week of Thanksgiving, 2015. What a great blessing it is to celebrate this holiday each year. A time when we are all challenged in society to remember just how blessed we are for all the things we have been given by God. The reality is, we are a very blessed people and God has given us an abundance of the things of this life. However, I'm not sure we always do a good job thanking Him for all He has done, is doing and has promised to do for the faithful. Are you showing your thankfulness to God on a regular basis?

The spirit of thankfulness should also spill over into our relationship with others. Think of all the love, care, concern and help you have received in this life. Do we thank those who use their time, energy and resources to make our life a little better! It amazes me just how unthankful our society is today. Most expect to be served and catered to. In fact, it is hard to even get a thank you from most, when we show kindness or do a good deed. Oh well, we must remember as Christians that God has set the standard and commanded us to be a thankful people. No matter what the world around us does or does not do, we answer to God and are responsible to show thankfulness to Him and to others. Are you showing a spirit of thankfulness with your fellow man?

So let me encourage us all during this holiday to be thankful for all we have from God and to express that thankfulness to Him. Furthermore, let's take time to thank those around us for all they do to help us in our daily lives. Remember what Paul told the Thessalonians, "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you," 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18. Why not fully obey God's Will!

I hope you all have a safe and blessed Thanksgiving week. I know many will be traveling, including my family, so let's remember one another in prayer. Also, as we show our thankfulness, let's encourage others to be thankful as well.

I look forward to seeing you all this coming Lord's Day for worship. What a great blessing it is to gather and worship our Creator and how thankful we should be for this opportunity. I love you all and God bless! HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

ELDER'S CORNER:

Greeting from your elders:

We want everyone to have a very good Thanksgiving holiday. If you are traveling, be safe and enjoy the time with family and friends.

Please be mindful of those of our number who are suffering with health issues. Charlotte has had her hip operated on after she fell last week and broke it. She should be in a rehabilitation facility by Wednesday. Wilma is home recuperating from her broken wrist. There are many on our prayer list-please take time to include them in your prayers.

Remember Odessa in the loss of her brother, Willie, last week. His service was yesterday in Ohio.

Mark your calendars for Saturday morning, December 12th to assemble and take for delivery the holiday baskets for our elderly and homebound members. There's a sign-up sheet on the foyer table to bring items. (We will not have our usual Men's Breakfast in December.)

Please remember our Fifth Sunday Special Contribution.

See you on Sunday for Bible Study and Worship.

Love all of you,

Gary & Jerry
