DECEMBER 6, 2015 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving. I'm glad everyone is now safely home after the holidays. Cindy, the family and I had a nice Thanksgiving with Cindy's mom. It is always nice to spend time with family during such holidays and to be reminded of all we have to be thankful for.

Well, December is here so it's time to think about the holidays. Cindy and I have planned our Adult Holiday Parties for December 18th and 19th. On Friday December 18th we will start at 6:30 and on Saturday, December 19, we will begin at 6:00. We hope you all will be able to join us for one night or the other. Please bring a holiday dish of some sort and a gift of no more than $10. We look forward to having you in our home again this year.

I am thankful that Dad continues to improve from his surgery. As many others in the congregation know, he is just having a hard time getting his energy back after such a serious surgery. Please continue to remember him, as well as all those who are still recovering from various health issues and surgeries. We always have a lot of our family who are dealing with health struggles. Please make sure to read over our prayer needs in this bulletin, as well as pick up an announcement sheet this Sunday to keep all of these needs before God's throne.

Well, classes are still going well at the BIM. I have been teaching a few extra classes to help Dad out while he is recovering. This quarter I am teaching the Prison Epistles and Greek II, as well as the New Testament Church and the Preacher and His Work 2. Thanks to brother Chuck as well who is teaching the Preacher and His Work VI to the second year students. Brother Brent and Tim have also helped us cover some of these needs and we really appreciate their extra effort.

I hope to see most of you tonight at our midweek service. Also, remember that the Lord's Day will be here before you know it so please be present, prepared, and ready this Sunday to give God your very best. May God bless us all!

WASTING LIFE

There was something different about Morris Siegel, a street person in Los Angeles, California. On the surface he seemed like your average Los Angeles street person-roaming about in dark alleys, sleeping out-of-doors, carrying everything he owned in an old shopping cart.

And he died the way one expects a street person to die; he was found in an alley, dead of natural causes, heart trouble perhaps.

Something about him was different, though. Maybe it was his three bank accounts containing a total of $207,421.

In 1979, Morris' father died and left him the money. When Morris did not claim it, the Division of Unclaimed Property tracked him down, and his family forced him to accept it. He did not show up at the ceremony when the cash was awarded. He took enough of the money to buy an old car, where he slept in bad weather. Relatives rented him an apartment; he never went there. He died December 14, 1989, with three dollars in his pocket and an untouched fortune in the bank.

Sound Crazy? Well, figure this one out.

A couple of thousand years ago, our heavenly Father ratified His will and left all of His children eternal wealth-life, peace, victory. To this day, many have not claimed the windfall, and some have refused to spend any of it. Lost people shuffle down blind alleys of an empty existence, facing hell for eternity, and ignore the salvation promised in Christ. Many Christians are content to live isolated, unproductive lives on this earth, when they have the riches of heaven at their disposal (2 Corinthians 8:9). Trading eternal life for a perishing earth sounds as crazy as Morris (Matthew 16:26). -

ELDER'S CORNER:

From the elders at K.E:

Last Sunday was a special contribution day. We were a little disappointed in our contribution as we had almost five thousand. This is about what we need every week to keep up our work for the Lord.

We are commanded to go into all the world and preach the gospel; please help us to do that.

Continue to pray for the many we have on our prayer list that their health may improve.

Hope everyone had a good Thanksgiving holiday with family and friends.

We had several visitors Sunday and some of our own were out of town with family.

Hope to see you for worship on Sunday.

Love all,

Gary & Jerry
