THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

RAY'S REMARKS:

I hope you all are having a great week so far. This weather has just been gorgeous lately. It has almost been more like fall during the days, although it has really cooled off at night. So far we have had a pretty mild winter, but as we all know, in the Ozarks it can change rapidly. No matter what, I hope we will all enjoy the weather, this time of year, and all the blessings that come with it. We are truly God's blessed people.

Cindy and I will have our holiday parties in about a week and a half. I hope you are all making plans to be at one of our holiday parties. It is always a lot of fun and a real blessing to gather in our home each holiday with our church family. How sweet such time of fellowship is with those of like precious faith. The more the merrier, so please plan to be with us on December 18th or 19th. We look forward to see you then.

There are also several other opportunities to spend time together as well as to serve others this holiday season. This Saturday December 12th we will gather to make holiday baskets for our shut-ins. I hope many of you will be there at 10 a.m. and ready to help assemble the baskets. After we assemble them, we all have the opportunity to take a few and deliver them to those who we want to encourage and show love to. Parents also need to remember that on Saturday, there is an opportunity for free babysitting as some of our ladies have offered to watch children so some moms and dads can go out for holiday shopping. Hopefully, this will give some parents an opportunity to get some things done which they need to do for the holidays, without the kids around. Thanks to all who are helping with this good work. Youth, also remember that you will have a holiday party this Friday on December 11th, at the Fielder's home. I hope we will all take advantage of these opportunities to share in family times and the love of Christ.

Well, I hope to see you all this evening for our midweek service. Also, remember that the Lord's Day will be here again soon, and is a wondrous time to give our homage and devotion to a deserving God. I hope you will be present and ready to give Him our very best. May God bless all, each and every day, as we do His Will and honor His Word. See you soon!

ELDER'S CORNER:

"Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider one another unto love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the day approaching." (Hebrews 12:23-25) It is good sometimes to remind ourselves of the need to assemble with the saints whenever they come together to worship God. In fact, as stated in the above scripture, the inspired writer is informing us that this is not a choice but a command. Assembling with the saints not only profits, in the greatest way, those who attend but it also affords us all the opportunity to encourage one another. There are many of our number who strive to be at every service but some choose to not be at most of the services. How can we be pleasing to God if we miss for any and every excuse under the sun? We need one another at all our services.

Some work is being done on our roof which is necessary to control wear and tear so that a much greater repair job doesn't have to be done in the near future.

Remember our loved ones who are suffering with health problems. They need our prayers and encouragement.

Wishing you all a very Happy Holiday Season!

Jerry & Gary
