THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

RAY'S REMARKS:

Well, by now Santa is loading up his sleigh and getting the reindeer ready to deliver all the presents; can you believe that Christmas day is only a few days away? Anyway, I know that Mr. and Mrs. Claus have been very busy getting ready to bring great joy to the kids and to see the excitement in all of their faces. Although my kids have gotten older, it is still exciting to spend time with them and to give them gifts. However, some of the toys are getting kind of expensive. I miss the days when any old noise maker would do the trick and bring a big smile to their faces. Oh well, it still is a great time of the year and I am certainly blessed with a wonderful family.

Our holiday parties over the weekend were a great success. We had 24 adults at our first party and 32 adults at our second party. It is always such a great joy to share such times with family and friends. We all had a blast and I already am looking forward to next year's get together. Chase also told me that he had a great time at the Youth holiday party. Thanks again to the Fielders for hosting it.

Last Sunday we had a good number stay for the Agape Meal. We also had some of our visitors stay, which gave us an opportunity to visit with them and get to know them better. It is so wonderful to have such fellowship as God's people and to share this fellowship with others.

We all need to remember those of our number who are still dealing with a variety of trials in this life. First, we have two sisters who will have surgery this week. Please pray for Retha and Janet. Also, brother Tom has been accepted for his next treatment, but he and Anita will have to move to Huston for 4 to 6 months while they administer the treatment to him. Let's remember them in prayer during this stressful period. We also have others who continue to recover from surgeries and/or recent falls. Please make sure and keep all these needs before God's throne, God is good and prayer is powerful!

I hope you have a great holiday week and I hope you enjoy your time with family and friends. Please remember to keep God at the forefront of all you do in your daily life. Certainly with God all things are better and possible. May God bless us all as we continue to do all which He commands in His Perfect Word.

ELDER'S CORNER:

2015 is almost history and now we are all preparing for the New Year of 2016. Resolution time!! I no longer like to make them and all of you probably feel the same because usually we don't fulfill the commitment. But when you look at the Christian life and what God requires of us, then there must be a resolution kept from the beginning when we were baptized until the day we die. Paul best stated it when he said: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." (Romans 12:1-2) If we would all make that commitment, we know one thing for sure, that we will have the best 2016 that is possible. This would commit us to worshipping God with the saints, and as we have opportunity, do good to all, especially those of the church. May God give us all the strength to fulfill this challenge in our lives in the New Year.

May God bless you with a wonderful Holiday Season!

Jerry and Gary
