JUNE 7, 2015 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

What a wondrous Lord's Day we had together this past Sunday. We had a good crowd present and everyone seemed in good spirits to Worship and praise their Creator. As always, it was good to have visitors with us.

We also had a great lunch on Sunday for our 5th Sunday Potluck. Probably over 100 stayed for this time of fellowship and growth. It was certainly a blessing to share this time as those who love God. Hopefully, we also were able to encourage those who visited with us and share this meal with us.

I also wanted to say Great Job on the 5th Sunday contribution. We were able to make up for all of our shortfalls and now are back on budget. Thanks to all who gave extra to help with this need. Now maybe we all can make just a little extra effort each week and then we won't even need to use 5th Sunday for budget shortfalls. God certainly blesses us in so many ways. Let's always make every effort to always give him our best.

Well, the BIM is finally out for the summer. I know the students were very relieved to be done with their first year of classes. It has been a long and intense year of studies, but they all have done a good job and grown a lot.

Our next class is busy making preparations to come. In fact, even today we have one of our new students moving into an apartment in Springfield. It is exciting to see things coming together for our next intake. We still have 4 men confirmed for this next class, two are married and two are single. We'll have more information about them in the near future. Please keep all of these good brothers in your prayers.

I hope you have a great day today and I hope to see you for Bible Study this evening. It looks like this is going to be a pretty week, so let's use our time and energies to the glory of God. Remember, that the Lord's Day will be upon us before you know it, so let's all be sure to be present and ready to give God our best. I look forward to see you all then as well. May God bless us all as we strive to do His Will and as we obey His Perfect Commandments.

ELDER'S CORNER:

Our deepest sympathy goes out to David Falls over the loss of his Dad this past week. Continue to remember David and his family in the loss of this loved one.

We all rejoice over the baptism of Shirley Blades. Shirley is the mother of one of our present students, David Falls. All of our hearts were touched this past Sunday morning when Shirley put on Christ. We pray that she will receive the strength and courage to live the Christian life and are so happy that she now has hope of eternal life. Tyler Reid responded this past week to be restored and ask for prayers for strength to live as Christ desires him to live.

A special thank you for responding to our fifth Sunday make up contribution. We are now on budget again. May God bless you for helping.

We had a full house at our potluck this past fifth Sunday. It is exciting to see the spirit of Christ demonstrated by all here at K. E. Hope to see you all at all our services.
