BULLETIN
RAY'S REMARKS:

Happy Thanksgiving to you all! I hope you are having a great week! Tomorrow is the big day when we will have the privilege of being with family and friends to remember all those things we are thankful for. I look forward to lots of good food and fun and to taking the time to remember just how blessed we are as U.S. citizens. I think we all realize just how blessed we are, but I am continually reminded of our many brethren in Africa who have almost nothing compared to what we have; yet they find happiness and joy in this life. Brethren, let's always remember just how fortunate we are and how much opportunity that places in our hands to do the work of God. Let's all be Thankful to God for His bountiful gifts. Our Creator has certainly shown a great love for His faithful children.

It is also hard to believe that we are in the last full week of November. This has been a profitable year, but oh my, it has flown by. Things continue to go well at the BIM. I know the students are ready for a little bit of free time during the holidays.

Our new visitation program has also already began to bear fruit. Thanks to all those who continue to be involved in this good work and many others that we already had going on. We have so many good workers and brethren who are involved at K.E. We are truly blessed to have such an active family. Let's all keep up the good work, look for more opportunities to serve, and try to get others of our brethren involved in the great work of the Lord.

Brothers and Sisters, we just learned this morning that brother Tom Long has gone on to meet his eternal reward. He gave a valiant fight in his battle with lung cancer. He was a man of wonderful Christian character that I was proud to know. Keep our sister Anita in your prayers and let's do all we can to encourage her and Tasha and let them know they are loved.

There are many of our family who are really struggling with health issues at this time. Please pick up a prayer list or look in this bulletin to find out more about those who have special needs. Let's pray for them daily, that God's perfect will may be done.

Again, I hope you have a great Thanksgiving. Remember we have an opportunity to worship together tonight as we gather for a devotional period (no classes). Let's all be present this Sunday to gather before God's throne as well. See you soon. God bless all!

ELDERS' CORNER:

Hello Brethren:

Brother Tom Long's passing this morning saddened us all. Please pray for Anita and their daughter, Tasha as they cope with the loss of this good husband, dad and brother. We will miss him, but we also take great comfort in God's tender and loving promises.

We have many struggling with health problems like brother Leon Wake, sister Charlotte Steely and all those on our prayer lists who need our prayers.

This week will be Thanksgiving. We need to be thankful for all we have. If you are traveling, please be careful so you can return to us.

Hope most of us are up to date on our Daily Bible reading. The year will soon end.
