RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello brethren! I hope you all are having a great week so far. We certainly were blessed with a great Lord's day last Sunday. It is such a blessing to having church family and to share together in the things of Christ. I always love coming together as God's people to worship God.

Let me also say a big thanks to all those who came and helped over the weekend to assemble and deliver holiday baskets. A total of 33 baskets were made and delivered and I know that they were a great encouragement to many of our sick, elderly and shut-ins. Let's all remember these good brothers and sisters in our daily prayers that they may have the care, peace and love of God in their daily lives.

I can hardly believe we are only a few weeks away from the end of the year. No doubt, the holiday season is upon us and I know we are all looking forward to spending time with family and friends over the next few weeks. Cindy and I are excited about our Christmas parties this year. This Friday or Saturday, we hope to have many of you in our home so that we might celebrate the holidays together. Our teenagers also have a get together planned for Friday evening as well. It is a wonderful thing to be in God's family and to be able to spend such times together. Hope to see you this weekend.

How have you been enjoying all the Christmas lights that are up? There seems to be a lot more in our neighborhood this year. I also think the holiday decorations are so beautiful and exciting, yet another reason that this is such a wondrous time of the year.

Brethren, during this holiday season we have also had some major prayer needs for those who are dealing with great trials in this life. First, let's remember Clyde and Robbie in the loss of their daughter. Also, remember sister Anita in the loss of her older sister. No doubt, they will need a lot of love and encouragement over the days and weeks to come. Let's let them know how much we love them.

Let's also remember brother Gary. He is still having a difficult time recovering from his accident. He is dealing with a lot of pain in connection to his broken ribs. May we all encourage him and pray for him daily.

We also have many others who are dealing with other health issues, struggles of life and various trials. Let's make sure and check the prayer list and keep all these important needs before the throne of God. May we never forget the power and blessing of prayer.

I hope to see you tonight for our mid-week service. Also, remember the great privilege of worship that will be ours to enjoy this coming Lord's day. Brethren, may we always put God first in all things, knowing that God always richly blesses those who are faithful! God bless!

THANK YOU:

To K.E. church,
Thanks for the trip to Branson - these trips are so special when you are shut in. Jerry & Edith are so special. [Also], thanks so much for the Holiday Basket - as always it was filled with so many wonderful treats, cakes, candy & fruit. I loved the popcorn can. This just made my day!

ELDERS' CORNER:

Our hearts were saddened this past week with the tragic death of Jill Morrison, daughter of Clyde and Robbie Heavin. Jill is one of our own. We are thankful to God that the children survived. Our prayers are with Travis, the children, and Clyde and Robbie during this difficult time.

Helen Haralson, sister to our Anita Long, passed away this past week. Anita has suffered the passing of two loved ones in less than two weeks. Please continue to remember her in your daily prayers and with cards and calls.

Let's not forget the Holiday get-togethers at Ray and Cindy's house this coming Friday and Saturday night. Don't forget this opportunity to be together during this special time of the year.

I had a successful trip to Alabama last Sunday. Money was raised to buy a new printer for Uganda as well as funds to build a new church building close to the school building. A congregation was started there less than a year ago and over twenty have already been baptized. Edith and I will be leaving on the 5th of January. Keep us in your prayers.

Hope to see you all at all our services.
