RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Wow, wow, wow, can you believe the weather we are having lately? Today we start a new month within our winter season and our temperatures have been all over the board. We have had everything from hot, sunny and Spring-like temperatures one day to below freezing the next. I don't know about you but this kind of keeps my sinuses and allergies messed up. But overall, it has been a nice and beautiful time of the year and we have no doubt been richly blessed by God.

Last week I even had the opportunity to go out on the lake with the boys and do a little fishing. For me, I think that is the first time I have ever gone out in February and fished on any lake in the area. Either way, it sure was great to get out with Trey and Chase and to catch a few fish.

We had a great get together Sunday night at our home with the youth group. I always love it when the kids come to our house for their devotional. I love the beautiful songs they sing and how they always seem willing to worship God and hear His word proclaimed. Thanks to Jordan for doing the Devo. He is really coming along and improving his preaching skills. Hopefully he will be able to speak at K.E. in the near future so you all can see his progress.

This Sunday, the elders will be presenting the membership books for this year. As you remember, we were a little delayed getting everything prepared for the book due to some of us being out of the country in January. This booklet will have a new budget, new Agape groups and an updated directory. It will also give a calendar of this year's events at K.E. and update on many of the works we oversee. A big thanks to Julie for helping me get these books organized and printed for the elders!

Brethren, as always, let me remind us all that we have several who need to be remembered in our daily prayers of our family. Many are still dealing with health issues and others trials. Especially, let me encourage us all to remember sister Charlotte Steely in our daily prayers and let's encourage her in every way we can as she continues to deal with her health problems. I know we all love her a lot and I know she needs our encouragement at this time, so let's each do our best.

I hope to see you at our mid-week service tonight. It is always a blessing and privilege to gather as God's people. Also, let's be ready to worship our God this coming Lord's day. Oh, how wonderful it will be to gather on God's day and to laud and magnify His Wondrous Name! God bless!

MEMBER REQUEST:

A couple of our members need someone (with their own mower) to mow 2 yards in South Springfield ($25/yard). Please contact the office if you know of someone reliable.

ELDERS' CORNER:

It is a good thing to see our brothers and sisters take advantage of the invitation. It allows us all to help by our approaching the throne of God together to ask God's help with our needs. As we continue to lean upon each other, we are helping each other to press toward that goal of eternal life together.

Please remember sister Charlotte Steely in your prayers. She needs our cards, visits and prayers. Our prayers are that God will give her strength during these difficult times.

This Sunday, after our morning service, the 2017 Membership Book and the budget will be presented to the congregation; a word of sincere appreciation for your response to exceeding our budget for last year. We hope all of you will look over the book that is presented. Feel free to contact us with any suggestions you might have or corrections.

Hope to see you all here at all the services.

Jerry & Gary

Elder on call for March:
Jerry Sullins

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.

Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we might be a kind of first fruits of His creatures.

James 1:17-18
