THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

JUNE 4, 2017 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

I hope everyone is having a great week. We are continually blessed as God's people and I remain so thankful for all our answered prayers in connection to many of our church family. I hope we will all remember the power of prayer and keep our needs and those of our brethren before God's mighty throne.

It's hard to believe, but we are in our final week of classes out at the BIM. The men are all very happy and thankful for the break that is coming up. Also, brother Cory is excited about graduating and beginning his new work with the Bona Church of Christ. Let's remember all of these men in prayers as they continue to labor in the Kingdom of God.

With this in mind, we also need to remember that we have our BIM graduation this Sunday afternoon for brother Cory Orr. You might remember that we started out with 4 students in Cory's class, but he is the only one who persevered and completed the goal. We look forward to celebrating with him and honoring him in this great accomplishment.

Have you been to Branson yet? I am thankful that many of you are already taking advantage of the good Lectureships going on in Branson right now. They have had some great speakers and a great turn out by many who desire to hear the word of God and to grow as Christians. If you haven't gone yet you are missing out and it would be a great encouragement to you to go and study God's Word with others of like precious faith. You won't be disappointed by putting God first and doing that which gives Him the glory.

Because of the lectures we have been blessed to have several of our graduates back in town. In fact today, brother Dustin McCrickard came to chapel with two of his elders from Washington State and Dustin spoke in Chapel. Yesterday we had brother Kendell Fox speak for us from the Pacific Church of Christ. I know these guests have been an encouragement to our students and faculty. How blessed we are to have such times as the faithful of God.

Finally, let me remind you that camp starts in just two weeks. It is hard to believe that it is already time for this year's session, but it is upon us. We start our session on the 11th, and on that Sunday morning, we will also have some visitors from Africa with us. Brother Shadreck Boitwarelo and his wife are coming to visit us and he will speak for us on that Sunday morning as well. What a blessing it will be to have them visit and for all of you to meet them. Brother Shadreck is one of our first graduates from our preachers school when it was in Botswana, Africa.

I hope you all have a great day and I look forward to seeing you tonight for our 5th Wednesday night. Remember, we will have an extended devo tonight for our 5th Wednesday and thus we will have no Bible classes. See you tonight! God bless!

THANK YOUS:

Thank you all for the thoughts & prayers for my mom, Darlene, during her surgery. The doctor said everything went well. She is still in pain & will be limited to what she can do for a while, but seems to be doing better already. Continued prayers are welcomed. We appreciate each and every one of you. In Christian love, Angela Moody

Thank you for all the cards that I received after preaching at the BIM Spring Lectureship. I greatly appreciate the encouragement!

In Him, Scott Marriott

The Steely family is so very grateful to the congregation at Kansas Expressway Church of Christ. Our mother/grandmother loved each and every member with all her heart. There was not a day that passed that she did not have a loving story about one of her Christian brothers & sisters. It brought her so much joy to lift others up through her letters & cards. We thank you for loving her, supporting her and lifting her up in prayer. We all believe she will have her reward.

Thank you to all who were able to attend her funeral services and a special thanks to brother Ray and brother Jerry for officiating & leading the hymns respectively.

With love and gratitude,

The family of Charlotte Steely
