BULLETIN

RAY'S REMARKS:

What a blessing it was to gather as God's people this past Sunday and to enjoy our worship for the Creator. It was also a blessing to have brother Shadreck and our visitors from Botswana with us Sunday morning. Brother Shadreck gave us an encouraging sermon on taking the Gospel to the lost of the world. I hope as God's children we will all heed this important command.

A big thanks to Andy for preaching for me Sunday night. I know he did a great job, as always and I know your worship to God was pleasing and proper in His sight, as always.

We are off to a great start at camp. We have 48 campers this year, so by the time you add in all the staff we have 60 people out at camp full time, not to mention other helpers and volunteers. Thanks to all who help out with camp and make our session a great success. We are truly blessed from God to spend such times together and to encourage our young people to know more of God's Word and to grow more as Christians. We are also blessed to share our faith with some who are not yet Children of God. I hope we can be a proper influence on them for the sake of Christ and His saving Gospel. Also, thanks to all of you who send your kids, grandkids and who encourage others to come to our session. It is a privilege to have this time yearly to serve God and to encourage others.

Well, summer is here. So far our session has been hot, but bearable. We have actually had a good breeze most of the week, so if you're in the shade it is pretty nice. Weather wise, this is turning out to be one of our nicest sessions in several years. I hope many of you will be able to join us for our cookout on Friday night. It is always a blessing to have many of you out to close out our session and to enjoy a fun evening of praise, fun, fellowship and growth. I look forward to seeing many of you Friday night.

Finally, let me say that I hope you all have a great mid-week study together at K.E. Obviously we will be out at the camp and will have our devotional out here. No doubt God will be pleased with all of our offerings. I also look forward to being back with you all this coming Lord's day. See you Sunday! God bless!

* * * * *

Dear Christian friends,
I do not have words to express what the visits,
calls, cards and everything meant to me.
So wonderful to have a good Christian family here and to love me. Thank you so much - I love you all.

In Christian Love, Jeannie Bradley

HERITAGE

Daddy was highly respected in the community - a man of generosity and loving authority. People often said to me, "Your father is one of the finest men I have ever known."

Every time I heard someone say that, I wanted to be like Dad. I wanted never to bring shame or grief to him.

It also helped me as I got older to be the kind of father that my sons would respect. I have come to realize that it is important for us to be the kind of parents that will make our children want to honor their father and mother. Does your child know his heritage?

LOVE THE LORD WITH ALL YOUR HEART.

Taken from the Bona Beacon June 20, 2010

Even a child is known by his deeds,
Whether what he does is pure and right."

Proverbs 20:11

"Train up a child in the way he should go,
And when he is old he will not depart from it."

Proverbs 22:6

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

ELDERS' CORNER:

The elders want to thank the four Africans who were here for the services on Sunday: brother Shadreck Boitshwarelo, his wife Thokgamo and their friends, brother Clement Peter and his wife Lorato. Brother Shadreck gave the sermon on Sunday morning. He did a great job. Brother Shadreck and his wife were in the United States for the graduation of his son at the Memphis School of Preaching.

Brother Andy Heavin preached a very good sermon on Sunday evening, as well.

Brother Bill and sister Laura were married on Saturday afternoon. We wish them the best in their married life.

We need to keep all on our side list in our everyday prayers.

We need to keep the campers at Happy Hollow
this week in our prayers also.

There will be a cook out on Friday evening. Please bring sides dishes for everyone to enjoy.
Hamburgers and hot dogs will be furnished. We will eat around 6 P.M. and everyone is invited to come share and fellowship with one another.

Hope to see all of you for Sunday worship services.
