AUGUST 27, 2017 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Well, the BIM is off to a great start! We had a good day on Monday at our orientation. It was also a blessing to see a lot of our graduates come for chapel to encourage our new and returning students. We are so blessed to be a part of such a great work for the Lord. How exciting it is to train men in the Word of God, that they may go out and teach the lost and dying of this world. We should all be proud to be a part of such a wonderful work, not only here but those sister schools as well throughout Africa. God has richly blessed us as a congregation!

I might remind you of our new students this year. Our own Tim Burks has begun classes and seems to be excited about the opportunity to learn God's Word. Also, a younger brother named Brendon Carr, from the South Hwy 5 congregation in Lebanon has started his studies. Brendon's grandfather is the preacher for the Liberty Church of Christ in Belle, MO. Please keep these good brothers in your prayers as they begin their training to equip themselves for the service of God. Also remember Jordan, Evan and Zach as they have returned to continue their studies. May God bless all of these men as they grow in God's Word and as they train to become heralds to this world proclaiming God's saving message.

It's also great to have Dad and Mom back from Africa. I have enjoyed hearing a little about their trip already, but I look forward to getting a more detailed report. I know they were able to do a lot for the Kingdom while they were gone. It sounds like all of the preachers' schools in Africa are doing well!

What a surprise we all got Sunday to hear about sister Meagan's problem. We thank God that she has now gone through her surgery and that it was success. Let's continue to pray for her daily as she recovers, but also as she faces further treatment in the near future. Let's also pray for Mary and the family as they are there to help Meagan through this difficult time. Of course, as her spiritual family, let's help in every way we can as well. We also have others still in need of prayer, please check the prayer list and keep all of those who have needs before the throne of God! We certainly all believe in and know the power of prayer. God is good!

I look forward to seeing you all this evening for our mid-week study. How privileged we are to have this time to gather and grow in God's Word. Also, remember the upcoming Lord's day. How blessed we are to gather as God's people on His day to Worship and Praise our Creator! God Bless!

ELDER'S CORNER:

Special prayers need to be offered on behalf of our sister, Meagan Sanders. As many of you know, this week, Meagan was taken to the hospital with a very serious health problem. After a short time, she had to undergo brain surgery to remove a tumor that was affecting her eye sight as well as many other side effects. The tumor was completely removed and now we are waiting on the results of the test to determine what, if any, treatments will be needed for her complete recovery. Let us all remember her and her family in our daily prayers.

BIM started this past Monday. Three students returned for their second year of studies. Also, we started a new class of two students. Their names are Brendan Carr and Tim Burkes. As you pray, remember all of these guys. They need our encouragement to complete the difficult studies that are before them.

It's good to be back from Africa. Edith and I had a very successful but challenging trip to three different countries. Soon, I will make a report on the journey. I know you will be encouraged. I want to thank Gary for bearing a great burden in my absence and for all the brethren who took care of some of my responsibilities while I was gone. Special thanks to brother Andy Heavin for taking my Wednesday night class. We missed you all and are glad to be home. Thank you for your support!

The scheduled elders' and deacons' meeting on the August 27th will be postponed till a later date, to be announced.

Last Sunday we had a good attendance. Let's make it better this Sunday. See you then.

Jerry & Gary
