THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

NOVEMBER 26, 2017 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

Well, here we are in November and we are only a few days away from Thanksgiving. What a wonderful Holiday Thanksgiving is as we focus on the many blessing and gifts from God which we have in this life. It is always a blessing to spend time with family and friends, as well as to enjoy the delicious foods of the holiday. I wish you and yours a very safe, enjoyable, prosperous and blessed Thanksgiving Holiday.

In connection to this time of the year, I am always amazed at how quickly people forget just how blessed they are or lose their manners. As we all know the day after Thanksgiving is Black Friday. On this day many shoppers go out and try to take advantage of the special deals of the holiday. However, unfortunately some have a very short memory and those things they were thankful for and celebrating the day before are easily forgotten in the heat of the moment. I hope that we, as Christians, will always remember who we are and what we represent. I know that life and many individuals in life can get us easily irritated, but we all have the choice and the ability to take the high road and to let the spirit of Jesus be seen in us.

So, enjoy the holiday and everything that is connected to it. However, remember that we are Christians first! Those who are to let our lights shine always! Those who are to help this world know Jesus through us! Will you be a good example to all on this earth?

Brothers and sisters, we also have many of our own family who are dealing with some difficult trials right now. Let's especially remember sister Erma in the loss of her son. Also, let's remember our beloved sister Mildred, as she is nearing the final days of her life. Let's keep these as well as the many others in our prayers who have special requests. It is a wonderful thing to be able to approach the throne of God with our needs and the needs of others. We are a blessed and loved people.

I hope to see you tonight for our midweek service. Due to the Thanksgiving holiday we will have a devotional period in the auditorium. Also, have a safe holiday and I look forward to seeing you all this coming Lord's day. It will be a great blessing to assemble as God's people on His day! God bless!

SYMPATHY:

We extend our heartfelt sympathies to our dear sister, Erma Folsom in the passing of her son, David Folsom last week. His graveside service was Tuesday afternoon at Greenlawn North.

THANK YOU:

Dear KE church of Christ,
 I wanted to express my deepest gratitude with the generous donation you all gave to me on the 5th Sunday of last month. I am so very thankful you guys thought of me during this difficult time. I am blessed to call you all my brothers and sisters in Christ and you all can experience this journey with me. So far, I am doing pretty well, given the circumstances. I will start another round of chemo on December 11th of this year and it will last for 6 months. I will have a follow up MRI to see if my tumor has grown back here in a few months, after my body has recovered from the radiation treatment. Thank you again for all the support these last 3 months: for all the calls, rides, monetary donations, flowers, visits, texts and mostly the prayers. I appreciate every single one of them, they do not go unnoticed.

Thanks again,
 Maegan Sanders

ELDERS' CORNER:

Greetings from your elders.

We want everyone to have a very good Thanksgiving holiday with your loved ones and friends.

Please be mindful of those of our number who are suffering with health issues. Mildred's health is declining at this time after having had pneumonia. Freda broke her hip and had surgery Sunday. She should be in a rehabilitation facility by Friday.

Remember Erma in the loss of her son, David. His service was Tuesday at Greenlawn North.

Mark your calendars for December 9th to assemble and take for delivery the holiday baskets for our elderly and homebound members. There is a sign-up sheet on the foyer table to bring items. (We will not have our usual Men's breakfast in December.)

See you on Sunday for Bible study and Worship.
 Love all of you,

Gary & Jerry
