DECEMBER 24, 2017 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Happy holidays brothers and sisters! Yes, this is the last week before Christmas and the man with the white beard and reindeer will be headed our way this next Sunday. However, I know most festivities will begin this weekend. Let me encourage you all to have a great holiday and to enjoy your time with family and friends. Please be careful and keep safe as many of us will be traveling during this holiday Season.

It's also very hard to believe that 2018 is less than 2 weeks away. I hope you all are thinking a little about what the next year holds and consider what more you can do for God as a Christian. I hope we are always looking for more opportunities to do God's will and to become stronger in His service. The good news is we are able, and we can if we make the choice to do so.

With New Year's in mind, let me bring to your attention that we will be having a New Year's Eve get together at the building on December 31. We will meet at around 7 p.m. for anyone who wants to join us to ring in the new year together. It's always fun to spend time with our church family and to usher in a new year together. I hope you will be able to join us.

I received a really neat email this week from a man who is a brother in Christ in Guam! He was writing to us on behalf of the North Guam Church of Christ and thanking us for our posting of online lessons and sermons. Evidently, they have been using our classes and sermons for their assemblies for about a year now. How exciting it is to know of yet another way we are making a difference for the Kingdom of God around the world. Please keep these brethren in your prayers.

Let me remind you that our evening services (which are usually at 5 p.m.) will be at 1:30 p.m. this Sunday (December 24th) and the 5th Sunday of the month (December 31). Also remember that we will have a 5th Sunday contribution to end the year and to help specifically in covering TV Taping cost for the Living Word Program. Finally, remember that we will have no potluck on the 5th Sunday as we usually do because of the holiday. However, everyone is welcome to return at 7 p.m. for a New Year's Eve get together.

I hope to see you all tonight as we gather for our regular mid-week service. It is always a wondrous blessing to gather as God's people. May God bless us all and may we always put Him first in our daily lives!

Ray Sullins

SYMPATHY:

Our sympathies are extended to the family of Mary Keeton in her passing on December 14, 2017. Services were Monday morning at Greenlawn North with burial in Hazelwood cemetery.

THANK YOU:

Tuesday Ladies,
 Thank you for the wonderful basket of gifts you sent. It meant a lot to me and I very much appreciate it.

Jeannie Bradley

Thanks to everyone who helped with the Goodie Baskets and Sandra for delivering it and the visit.

Doris McNealy

K.E. family,
 Thank you for the lovely holiday basket. It's a wonderful gift and I am thankful to have such a loving church family.

Love all, Jeanne Bradley

We would like to express our gratitude for all the cards, prayers and love given to us. Thank you so much!

Love, Becky & Dave Guiheen

Thank you to everyone who prayed for my cousin's son, Brooke Boydston, who was injured in a motorcycle accident in Hawaii a few months ago. He is still in the hospital and has one more surgery remaining. His mom, M'liss, is staying with him and they will spend Christmas there. Knowing you all have prayed for him has made such a difference in their outlook and improved his attitude for the better.

Thank you again for your continued prayers.

Carolyn Lee

ELDERS' CORNER:

From the elders at K.E.

Hope everyone is having a great week. The holiday season is here, and we hope everyone will enjoy some good family time with family and friends.

The next two Sundays, the evening services will begin at 1:30 PM giving time with family, always put the Lord first in everything we do.

This Sunday, brother Chuck Northrop will bring our morning sermon and brother Andy Heavin will present the PM sermon. Please plan on being here to hear both lessons.

This past Sunday, brother Tyler Reid came forward confessing he hasn't been putting the Lord first in his life. Let's all do all we can do to encourage this good brother and his family.

This last Monday morning, we had funeral services for Mary Keeton. She had been a member for many years. Recently her health has been bad and had not been able to attend. Keep this family in your prayers.

Our prayer list continues to grow with many having health problems. Please pray for all these good brothers and sisters daily.

We are still trying to update our elders and deacons. Pray for us as we do this.

Love to all,

Gary & Jerry
