BULLETIN
RAY'S REMARKS:

Hello Brethren! It is so great to be home. It is always a great privilege and blessing to go on mission trips and to do the work of the Lord, but it is equally a great blessing to return home and see my family, my brethren, and my dearest of friends. It was also wonderful to worship with my church family last Sunday. Brethren, I am ever reminded of the great blessing we have to be a part of such a wonderful, loving and committed church family of God. I hope we all realize just how blessed we are.

I have also really been enjoying my food since being home. One thing you miss while in Africa is what is normal food to us. Especially you start craving spices and familiar flavors. Many of you already know, but we were able to eat at a new KFC in Kumasi this time. It sure was good to have a little taste of home while in Ghana. However, since returning home I have been trying to make up for lost time and I have been enjoying some of my favorite foods.

Well, we are off to a new start at the Bible Institute of Missouri. We have started the 3rd quarter of the year and I am teaching two classes this quarter on Tuesday and Thursday mornings and for an hour and twenty minutes in the afternoon. I am teaching church history to both classes and I am teaching Greek 4 to our second-year students. All of our men are continuing to work hard on their studies. Please keep them all in your prayers as they study the Word of God. Also, remember our second-year students. They only have two more quarters until graduation. Brother Evan and Zach have already been blessed with new works they will be going to. Brother Jordan is still looking for a congregation to work with. Please keep all of these good brothers in your daily prayers as they finish their schooling and as they find their place to work in the Kingdom of God.

Brethren, please keep in mind that tonight we have the privilege to gather as God's people and to study His Word and to worship before His throne. I know you will all want to be present to give this time of offering to God. I hope to see you tonight. God Bless!

ELDERS' CORNER:

It brings the Lord joy and us as elders, to see our brothers and sisters in Christ here at K. E. in harmony with one another. Even though at times, we as a family experience a strain in relationships, the love of and because of our love for Christ we continue to encourage one another in our journey towards Heaven. So, let us all encourage each other to a greater love for Christ and His church (Hebrews 10:24).

Our thoughts and prayers continue for those of our number who are dealing with many health problems. In a special way, remember Meagan Sanders and Angie Moody in your prayers. God knows their needs as well as many others among our members, families and friends. We pray for God to help them according to their individual needs.

Remember our chili cook off this Sunday evening after services. Don't forget to bring some Roloids, etc. and be prepared to be up most of the night.

Because of several circumstances, our yearly membership book was not presented before the first of this year. The Lord willing, we will present the new book which will include the budget on February 4th immediately after the morning worship period. We are excited about making the budget throughout 2017. Because of doing so, we were able to keep up with our commitments to care for the congregation and reach out with the gospel throughout the world.

Hope to see you all with us at every service. May God bless you!!!
