THE K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

JUNE 24, 2018 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

Hello brethren!

It's great to be home and sleeping in my own bed. However, we did have a great week at Camp! I think I am about back to normal after a tiring week, but I think it takes a little longer to recover every year from a week of none stop activities. I'm not sure why that is? ☺

Anyway, we had a great week and the kids really did well. They seemed to be attentive and really interested in Biblical things. Hopefully, we have had a very positive affect on some of the campers who were not yet members of the Lord's church. God is good!

Can you believe this heat? Yikes! No doubt summer is upon us with full vengeance. I can't believe how quickly the yards have died, but when you don't have rain for a while, things certainly dry up. It sounds like there may be a little rain in the forecast, but either way let's continue to be good examples for those around us and to be busy in the work of the Lord. We are all blessed with A/C so let's not grow weary in doing good!

This Friday there will be a youth get together at our home. We signed up for this month's youth devo and we look forward to having all the young people over. We are blessed with a great bunch of kids. I hope we will all encourage them and let them know how proud we are of them.

Also, remember that we have our Couples Workshop coming up in July. I hope everyone will be able to join us from 9-2 on Saturday, July 14. This should be a good time of study, Christian growth and fellowship.

Finally, let remember to gather this evening for our midweek service. It is always a blessing to come together as God's people and to worship our creator. The Lord's day is equally important, so let's all be present this Sunday as well. Oh, how precious it is to worship God together with those of like precious faith. See you soon. God bless!
