JULY 1, 2018 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

Well, how blessed we are to have had another great Lord's day together this past Sunday. Although we had a lot of our own family traveling for the summer holidays, we had lots of visitors and still a great number present to worship God. We also had a great Agape meal after morning worship. Again, several visitors were able to join us for this time of fellowship. Hopefully, they were able to see Christ in all of us and be encouraged to know more about God.

Cindy, the kids and I will be headed on vacation this coming Wednesday. We will miss all of you, but we look forward to seeing Cindy's sister's family in Florida and her mom in Tennessee as well. It is always good to be with family and to make memories together in this life. God has certainly blessed us with the beautiful relationships of life and I am thankful to God for each and every one. I know you will have a great weekend without us and I really appreciate those who are going to pitch in and help in my absence.

I can hardly believe that June is almost over. We have another month that has flown by and another year that is really passing quickly as well. I hope we all are making the most of our lives and enjoying the blessings of God each and every day that He gives us. However, most of all I hope we are making sure that our lives are in tune with what God wants and that we are always honoring Him in all we do and say. We must always keep salvation and eternal life as our goal and therefore do all that we do according to God's commands and covenants. Won't it be wonderful to receive the great rewards of God in the life to come, not to mention all that God does for us daily now. Truly we are a beloved and cared for people of God. Praise be to God for His wondrous grace, love and mercy!

Well, I look forward to seeing you again on July 8. May we all be safe and in God's care until we see each other again. Furthermore, may we all strive to be obedient in all things that God may be pleased and that we may thus be rewarded with God's richest blessing on us all!

ELDERS' CORNER:

Jesus gave us a "Golden Rule" to follow that can make our lives much easier and fulfilling as we struggle with everyday life. It has mainly to do with our association with others. The rule itself is found in Matthew 7:12 which says: "whatever you would want men to do unto you, do also to them." If we apply this rule as we relate to everyone in this life, our happiness will be the result.

Congratulations to Leon and Marcella Wake on their 50th wedding anniversary. It is an accomplishment that deserves recognition, especially in this world today. We will celebrate the occasion this coming Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. with their family here at the building.

Let's remember Susie Acton in our prayers. Her daughter, Blanca passed away Saturday. Her funeral will be here in Springfield with burial at 2 PM at National Cemetery off Evans Road. Our sympathy is extended to the family during this time of grief.

Many among our number suffer from many health problems. We are thankful for those who have received new strength and healing, but we need to remember those of our number who struggle from week to week. Pray without ceasing.

Hope to see you all every time we assemble together to worship and study God's Word.

Jerry & Gary

The work in Zambia is going on well. I am happy to be able to say that Edith and I will be going to Zambia this summer. While there I will be able to teach at the school, help solve problems that have arisen with the government, attend a Gospel Meeting where we are expecting over 2,000 in attendance, visit some village churches, make sure the school is operating as planned and encourage the brethren. Edith will also be able to teach Ladies classes at local congregations and encourage our sisters in Africa. Our dates for travel will be July 17 - August 23rd.

At this time, I am running short on what is needed to meet all the problems I know will be presented to me while in Zambia. If you can help, I will be glad to inform you of those needs. Please remember us in your prayers.
