SEPTEMBER 9, 2018 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Well, September is here, and we are blessed with the start of a new month and a new week. I hope you are all busy in the work of the Lord and that you continue doing all you can to please God. We are privileged to be very blessed by God and I hope we will always respond accordingly.

We are now about two weeks into our classes at the BIM. Everyone is doing well so far, and we are happy to announce that we have a new student join us this week. We are happy to have Casey Rice with us. Casey attends where Kevin Heavin preaches in Paris, Arkansas. He is a fine young man and seems to be excited to be here and I know he is going to do a great job. Let's remember all of these men as they focus on their studies and get used to the daily work before them.

Unfortunately, we did have one brother withdraw from the school who just felt he was unable to do the work at this time. We love brother Jody and pray that he will continue to serve God and be busy in the work of the Lord. We look forward to seeing him around K.E. still, as he is planning at this point to continue to live in Willard. Please remember Jody and his family in prayer that things will go well for him and his daughter.

I want to continue to remind us that this month is a 5th Sunday. Please make plans now to participate in our potluck. Also, remember we have an early service at 1:30. Finally, keep in mind that we have a 5th Sunday contribution, where everything above the budget will go directly toward paying off the new minibus! September is going to be a great month in the service of God. I hope we will all do our part to make it a great success.

Let me also give you a quick reminder that next month we have our Gospel meeting. We will give you more information in the near future. Let's begin praying now for its success to the glory of God.

I look forward to seeing you tonight for our Mid-week service. I hope your week continues to be a blessing as we each serve God. See you soon and God bless!

SYMPATHY:

Sympathy is extended to Betty Layton and family in the recent passing of her niece, Sharon Dozier.

Differing Paths

Often, when traveling through the Appalachians, I have noted the markers indicating the Eastern Continental Divide. This line denotes the watershed between streams that feed into the Atlantic Ocean and those that feed into the Gulf of Mexico. Two drops of rain, falling only inches apart on the ground, will end up separated by hundreds of miles before they reach the end of their journeys.

As we consider, personally, the choices we make day by day, we should recall the words of our Lord, "One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much." (Luke 16:10) The small things in our lives can well lead to big changes, either for good or for evil. This principle extends to congregations, as well.

Frequently, an emphasis on doctrinal exactness is greeted with a roll of the eyes. Why should we, after all, be concerned over small departures here and there? Isn't it just nit-picking to question everything that doesn't measure up to the truths we understand from Scripture?

We should be concerned about apostasy, even in the smallest measure, because it is a step down a path which will end in destruction. Every heresy that has divided the church began with a small departure from the truth, which lead to greater and greater departures over time.

Our fellowship must stand firm on the inerrancy of Scripture, the total truth and authority of God's word. We must stand firm in attempting to understand and follow the pattern of faith and practice outlined in the Bible. Most centrally, we must stand firm in teaching the exclusive truth of God's way of salvation through Jesus Christ. Even the slightest deviation in our commitment to these basic truths will plunge the church quickly into all manner of false teaching.

When Christian teachers and preachers depart from a complete confidence in Scripture, they stand in danger of losing their faith altogether. When congregations begin introducing unauthorized elements into the worship and work of the church, there is no end to the changes which will occur.
 When the church begins fellowshiping outsiders as if they were members of the Lord's church, soon the very heart of the gospel is laid aside. Constant vigilance is needed to keep the Lord's church true to the Lord's way.

ELDERS' CORNER:

Greetings Church,
 The elders want everyone to have a good week.
 Hope everyone had a good Labor Day weekend. We had a lot of visitors on Sunday filling in for our number who were out of town.

Brother Brent Green gave a very good report on the Global Schools of Biblical Studies on Sunday evening.
 Keep this good work in your prayers.

This Sunday, Agape groups 1 & 4 will meet for Chinese food. All are urged to be there and bring what your leaders have requested.

On Saturday, the men will meet for breakfast at 8 AM; please try to attend for this good food prepared by brother Bill and brother Wesley. There will be a devotional after breakfast.

Please keep those with health problems in your prayers.

The BIM is off and running everything is going as scheduled.

See all on Sunday for Bible study at 9:30 and Worship at 10:30.
