ELDERS' CORNER:

Excitement is in the air. Our gospel meeting with brother Keith Cozort begins this Sunday. Brother Cozort is a brother with a lifetime of experience in the proclamation of the Word of God. We can have a successful meeting if we all determine that we will be here for every lesson. How can we expect to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ if we don't take advantage of opportunities to learn more of His Word? We hope that all the family of God at K. E. will support the meeting. There will be a potluck after the morning service.

We are happy to report that James Cartwright is improving. We are blessed with this good family and are so happy that our prayers are being answered on his behalf. Remember all of our family who are battling health problems. Prayers and cards are needed to encourage them during these difficult times.

Men, don't forget the Men's breakfast this coming Saturday morning. It will be a good time of fellowship and spiritual enrichment together.

We love you all and will look forward to seeing you during our Meeting.
