NOVEMBER 4, 2018 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

We had a beautiful Lord's day this past Sunday. We had a good number present and a good contribution. It was great to hear how well brother James is doing, as well as others who are still recovering from other health issues. We are certainly a blessed people of God.

I hope you have all been enjoying the fall weather. The leaves are so beautiful right now and a constant reminder of the Power of God! It sure makes driving around Springfield and the Ozarks extra enjoyable. The seasons are certainly one of the great blessings of God.

Well our new quarter is off to a good start at the BIM. The present students still seem to be happy and eager to learn. I know their studies are difficult, but they have all kept a good attitude and have encouraged each other in their studies. We are very proud of our all our present students. Please keep them all in your prayers as they study God's Word and equip themselves to be servants in His Kingdom. Isn't it great to be a part of such an encouraging work of the Lord?

As most of you know, I always have mixed emotions about traveling overseas, but God willing, I do look forward to seeing my brethren next week in Ghana. It will be so exciting to see our brethren in Africa graduate over the next several weeks. A total of 32 men will be graduating from our three schools in Africa. Please keep all of these men who are graduating in your prayers, as well as those of us who are traveling that everything will go well, and that God will bless us with a safe journey.

Brethren, let's remember all those in prayer who have special needs and are dealing with a variety of trials of life. Please pick up a bulletin to remember those with needs and let's all keep them before God's throne in prayer. We know God's will is done in all things and that He always does what's best for us.

I look forward to seeing you all at our mid-week service tonight. Let's also be present Sunday to join in our first Worship in the Month of November. It's hard to believe that tomorrow we will already be in November of 2018. May God bless us all as we strive to live for Him and do His perfect Will.

THANK YOU:

Kansas Expressway Family,
 In deep appreciation for your live streaming of worship & Bible studies [check enclosed]. As a person who travels, it's so meaningful to know I have a safe place to Worship.
 In gratitude, Marky Medeiros (Amanda Amis' mom)

To our Dear KE Brethren,
 Sarah and I want to express our sincerest and greatest thanks to our family here. We all know that we are a big family in Christ here, but there is never a time to fully grasp just what that means and find the truest appreciation in it than when you go through a trauma. The trauma we faced over the past 3 weeks has shook us both, but we did not crumble and fall. Our church family, all of you, were here to help support us. We had phone calls, texts, help with our boys, meals brought, help with yardwork, and financial support provided. Most of all, we had the prayers of righteous brethren. So many showed up in our hour of need, and frankly, there are no words to describe how grateful we are or how it has made us feel. Everyone invested in us and showed an amazing Christ-like love toward our family. Your lights were shining so bright that it would have been near impossible for us to lose our way through it all. The level of servitude shown to us has been humbling, awe-inspiring and overall the biggest encouragement. Thank you all from the depths of our hearts. I am not completely healed, but I have come a long way, and I am hopeful that I do not have much more to go. I appreciate the continued prayers. God is faithful. God hears and God answers.

[Galatians 6:2, Hebrews 6:10, Romans 12:10-13]

Brethren, there are many more verses that apply to the love you have shown us in your actions over the last few weeks. You have all shared in our burdens; you have wept with us and have rejoiced with us as well. It's clear that you all have written those scriptures on your hearts. Your fruits are known, and they are sweet. Your works have been so good, but we know the glory is all God's. Every good and perfect gift comes from the Father. May God continue to bless this congregation.

We love you all.

James and Sarah Cartwright

ELDERS' CORNER:

Hope everyone is having a good week.

It sure was great to have the Cartwrights back in service on Sunday. Brother James read their letter that they wrote, telling the congregation how much they appreciated them. Brother James let us know that prayers are real. Thank God for his health being restored.

Continue to pray for all those that are having health problems. Brother Wesley will be having surgery November 8th. Pray that all will go well. Pray for Leon & Marcella, also.

Soon we will be sending several men to different parts of Africa for two weeks. Pray that their trip will be successful and safe for these men. It is good to have men in our congregation that can preach & teach in their absence.

Remember to set your clocks back an hour Saturday night for the end of Daylight Savings Time! Hope to see all of you on Sunday

Jerry & Gary
