NOVEMBER 25, 2018 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello brethren! Today is Monday, November 19, and we have just arrived safely near Kampala, Uganda, and we will begin our journey home tomorrow night.

We have had a tiring but beneficial trip to Uganda and we have really enjoyed being with the brethren this past week. During our stay we have been able to visit the school many times. We have also been able to spend some time with and get to know the new graduates. Also, we were blessed to participate in the graduation ceremony last Saturday. Everything has gone very well, and it has been good to encourage the brethren here and to see firsthand our work which is being accomplished in Uganda. We were also blessed to worship with the congregation near the school. Many of the students remained until Sunday morning for our worship service. It was a great day of praise to God, fellowship and time spent with dear and faithful brethren. We were also able to visit Alex Burasa's home on Sunday afternoon. It is a beautiful place with fruit trees and vegetation everywhere. Uganda is a country near the equator. It has plenty of rain and two growing seasons. You don't see hunger here because God has truly blessed this country and people with a productive land.

As I mentioned earlier, we are now close to Entebbe, Uganda where the Airport is. We will leave tomorrow evening and begin our 20+ hour trip of flying to get home. With time spent in airports and layovers it will be probably be closer to 30+ hours of travel time. Remember we already travel 5-6 hours today by van to get to Entebbe! We are all pretty tired and weary and ready to be home. We miss you all and love you. Please pray for our safe journey all the way home. We will first fly from Entebbe, Uganda to Amsterdam and then from Amsterdam to Atlanta and then from Atlanta to Springfield. Lord Willing, we will be home Wednesday night about 10:50! May God bless us with a peaceful and safe journey.

I have a lot more to tell you all upon our return. We look forward to seeing you all next Sunday!

I also hope and pray you all have a great Thanksgiving. Be safe in your journeys and enjoy your time with family and friends. May God bless us all as we put Him first and do His will in all things.

See you soon my beloved brethren!

We hope everyone is having a good week. This week is the Thanksgiving Holiday. We hope you all have a wonderful day, spending time with family and friends. If you are traveling, we hope you have a safe trip.

By the time you read this, all our men should be close to home. Pray for this safe trip.

We miss them when they are gone, but we know there is great work done while they are in Africa.

Continue to keep those who are having health problems in your prayers.

Keep Brother Chuck and Sister Jody in your prayers as they prepare to move to Oklahoma.

We thank Brother Andy Heavin and Brother Brendan Carr for giving great sermons Sunday in the absence of Brother Ray.

Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!
